Were Married At St. Peter's

Miss Ethel Shearman R.N., Becomes Bride of John Wilkie

The marriage of John Wilkie, a member of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. staff, and Miss Ethel Shearman R.N. of Grace Hospital in Vancouver, took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Peter's Church at Seal Cove. Very Rev. Dean J. B. Gibson officiated.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Rae Scherk as matron of honor and Miss Joyce Marie Scherk as flower girl. John T. Allen was the groomsman.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Hugh Forrest sang "Until."

After the marriage ceremony many friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rae Scherk where the reception was held. The toast to the bride was proposed by Dean Gibson and suitably responded to by the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie will take up residence on Sixth Avenue. East.

Only One Fire Alarm In July

Department Has Not Been So Busy to Date This Year As In 1936

The city fire department responded to but one alarm during the month of July, this being to the residence of Mabel Iowa, Comox Avenue, where $60 damage was done. Last year in July there were five fire alarms. So far this year the fire department has been called out only twenty-eight times as compared with forty-five times in the first seven months of 1936.

Pacific Takes The Show

A theotrical man and his wife who spend most of their time in hotels and trains carry a can of milk—a can of coffee—some tea bags and a percolator for hot water.

The man says he prefers Pacific Milk to fresh cream for his coffee—so he takes it along in his trunk.
