DELEGATES AT LUNCH

Representatives of Associated Boards of Trade Guests of Rotary Club

The delegates to the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia were yesterday afternoon guests at the Prince Rupert Rotary Club luncheon in the Commodore Cafe at which R. M. Winslow presided and the speakers were Earl Malcolm of Quesnel and E. T. Kenney M.L.A. of Terrace. Other guests at the luncheon were Frank Dibb and Arthur Brooksbank, Alex Carmichael, R. C. Hardie and Archie Thompson of Vancouver.

Mr. Malcolm spoke very briefly. He mentioned the splendid hospitality for which Prince Rupert was renowned and which he was now experiencing for the first time. He thanked the people here for this hospitality and hoped the association would continue to flourish and serve the people of Central British Columbia in a fitting manner as it had done in the past.

Mr. Kenney spoke of the 24-hour treatment meted out to the delegates by the entertainment committee. He hoped all the members of the Rotary Club were also members of the Chamber of Commerce. This was the organization together with the boards of trade to which the legislators looked for guidance in business matters.

Speaking of the work of the Associated Boards, Mr. Kenney said it was formed somewhat as a defence against the south but they had outgrown that idea and today it was a forward movement looking to the development of the whole of Northern and Central British Columbia.

Mr. Kenney drew attention to the fact that this and other bodies were always telling the government how it could spend money but they made no suggestions as how the money was to be raised to carry out the recommendations. He felt they might devote their attention to this phase of activity.

Speaking of highways, Mr. Kenney said these were a necessity and the province had got behind in its program but the time was not far distant when they would have good roads throughout the country. The difficulty was already in process of being overcome.

FAST SHOOTING

Sir Malcolm Campbell, British motorboat ace and racing car pilot, does a little shooting with a miniature camera at Brooklands racetrack in England, on the occasion of the dedication of the new concrete race course for autos.

PARCHED PEOPLE

REGINA, Aug. 6: (CP)—Averaging 6,000,000 gallons of water a day during the heat wave, as compared to the normal consumption of 3,750,000, Regina water consumers used at least 60,000,000 gallons in the first 12 days of July.

UNVEIL CAIRN

CARDSTON, Alta., Aug. 6: (CP)—A monument on the Canada-United States boundary, south of here, just unveiled, marks the spot where Charles O. Card and his band of pioneers from Logan, Utah, crossed the line into Canada, June 1, 1887.

PIG MOTHERS SKUNK

STAVELY, Alta., Aug. 6: (CP)—After killing what he though was the whole family of skunks on his farm, 60 miles south of Calgary, Roy Jenkins found one of his sows contentedly feeding a baby skunk that had escaped the slaughter.

Bernice Palmer says . . .

Prince Rupert is getting plenty of publicity these days. Olof Hanson's fish dinner for the cabinet members some time ago at Ottawa was played up. Then there was yours truly's radio broadcast! How many of you heard Budda on KFRC requesting any former Prince Rupert people to get in touch with him as there had been some inquiries at the studio for news of old timers from that part of British Columbia? Think of the people who, hearing the name for the first time, decided to look it up on the map, and then, their curiosity aroused, began to make some inquiries about the town with such a Royal name! Too bad television isn't here yet and a view of Prince Rupert's gorgeous sunset over the harbor could have been flashed across the air waves. . . .

Standing in line at a show I heard a man talking about a town he visited some years ago where the sidewalks were on stilts and fish came when whistled for! And then he went on to regale his listener with the story of the "Battle of Kelly's Cut." How many left up there remember that? Bet he would find the town considerably changed if he should visit there now.

Lovers' Lane and the Cinder Path make romantic reading, so hope these names continue to live—and by the way, why not call the new play ground Lilibet, after the little Princess who may some day rule the Empire? Lilibet Park is both phonetic (whatever that may mean) and sentimental. It fits in nicely with Metlakatla, Kitwanga and other musical names that make British Columbia so interesting.

TRIPLET THEOLOGIANS

REGINA, Aug. 6: (CP)—Born on a farm near Parry, Sask., 55 miles south of Regina, on September 18, 1912, triplet brothers Donald, Grant and Cecil McMillan, have all chosen a career in theology. Donald and Grant are graduates of a Winnipeg institute, while Cecil is in Portland, Ore., finishing his studies.

Pre-Nuptial Party For Miss Snidal

Lady Who is to be Married to Frank D. Morrison Gets Surprise

A surprise party, in honor of Miss Georgina Snidal whose marriage to Frank D. Morrison of Prince Rupert takes place this fall, was given at Carriar Cannery by Mrs. J. Lamb and Mrs. R. H. Gurd. Only members of the cannery crew were present.

After games were played and refreshments served, gifts from the Cassiar Cannery by Mrs. J. Lamb a cannery truck, packed in two salmon cases. These were presented by James Lamb, manager of Cassiar Cannery, to Miss Snidal, as a token of the esteem in which she is held by her fellow workers.

The first case was filled with nonsensical things and when unpacked was the source of much amusement. The second box, however, was tastefully decorated and filled with many charming and useful gifts for which the crew were very kindly thanked by Miss Snidal.

George Cripps provincial assessor, left on this morning's train for a week's visit to Terrace on official business. Later he will be going to Stewart, Anyox and Bella Coola.

MOTHER HELPED BY KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN

"I have suffered from terrible constipation since the birth of my first child. I tried everything. Very reluctantly, I tried your ALL-BRAN with no faith in it at all.

"Much to my surprise, I have not had to take any medicine since starting to use ALL-BRAN."—Mrs. Doris Eyre King (address on request).

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies this needed "bulk."

Within the body, this cereal absorbs twice its weight in water, forms a soft mass, gently sponges out the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B to tone up the intestines, and iron for the blood.

Enjoy this food instead of taking weakening pills and drugs. Serve as a cereal, with milk or fruits, or cook into recipes.

ALL-BRAN is sold by your grocer. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in London.
