GREETINGS OF NATIVES

Northern British Columbia Brotherhood Sends Message To King and Queen

Following is the copy of a telegram sent to King George and Queen Elizabeth on the occasion of their coronation, by the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia:

To Their Most Excellent Majesties, the King and Queen, Buckingham Palace, London, Eng.

"The Native Brotherhood of British Columbia, on behalf of the natives, express their loyalty and affection to Your Majesties on Coronation Day. We rejoice and pray for your long years of happiness, remembering the kindness of Your Majestry's father and Queen Mother to our people. We wish for your reign, peace, goodwill and fellowship among our people."

MUGS ARE GIVEN OUT

School Children Receiving Souvenirs of Coronation Today

Presentation of souvenir Coronation mugs to school children is taking place at various city schools during today. Prominent citizens have been chosen to make the presentations, the children to be assembled to hear suitable addresses at each school. The presentations are being made as follows:

King Edward High School, Olof Hanson M.P.

Booth Memorial and Seal Cove Schools, City Commissioner W. J. Alder.

Borden Street School—W. M. Brown, chairman of celebration committee.

Annunciation School—G. W. Nickerson.

St. Andrew's Japanese Mission, Miss R. M. Davies, O.B.E.

Most Rev. Cosmo G. Lang, the Archbishop of Canterbury, will crown the King and Queen.

The Duke of Gloucester, brother of the King, will lead the peers in offering their homage at the Coronation.

Coronation Representative

Miss Nora Gladstone (above), 17-year old Indian maiden of the Blood tribe near Cardston, Alta., chosen by the National Council of Education to attend the Coronation. Miss Gladstone, whose Indian name is "O-Muk-A-Penni," meaning "Big Eyes," is a clever and attractive student at St. Paul's Residential School, one of the west's famous Indian schools. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gladstone, and grand-daughter of the late Chief Joe Healy, famous Indian scout and interpreter for the mounted police.
