United Church Christmas Tree

Good Turn-Out at Enjoyable Affair For Young Folg Last Night

The annual Christmas Tree entertainment of the Sunday School of First United Church was held Monday night in the church parlors, drawing out a large gathering of children and a good representation of interested parents. First on the program were two choruses by the Primary Department "While Thousands of Stars Were Shining" "So Bright" and "Long Long Ago." There were two plays, "Good King Wenceslas" and "Yuletide Joys," after which Miss Marie Boulter recited "The Dream" following which there was another play "Strike in Santa Claus Land." Between the items Christmas carols were sung. After a number of messages had heralded his approach Santa Claus (P. H. Linzey) finally arrived on the scene and, from a beautifully decorated tree, distributed gifts to the smaller children and sweets for all.

Rev. J. C. Jackson, the pastor was in the chair and Wilfrid Hicks Ken Harding and Miss Edith Wilkinson took a leading part in arrangement of the program.

The Prince Rupert Boys' Band Parents' Association luncheon se raffle held over because returns were not all in resulted in Joe Scott winning with ticket number 74.
