Bernice Palmer says . . .

Another sit-down strike has hit California—this time staid Berkeley, the College City, is the seat of its activities and citizens are all in a dither. Police were called. . . .and nothing has been done to date. The cowards! . . . A swarm of bees invaded and took possession of the grounds and gardens of one Guy Abbott on Cedar Street and refused to allow said Guy to enter his own house. It just goes to show what example will do. When nature begins to stage a sit-down strike, the situation is becoming desperate. Maybe that is what Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario meant when he said that strikes had brought the United States close to a state of anarchy! And just think—the mosquitoes and little black flies have also staged their sit-downs. I guess the custom isn't so new after all!

Miss Marjorie Kenney, who has been attending summer school for teachers in Victoria, arrived in the city from the south on the Prince George this morning and proceeded by the morning train to Terrace to spend the balance of the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kenney.

MUSICAL IS FAST

"Wake Up and Live" Presents Comedians of Contrasting Types—Coronation in Technicolor

"Wake Up and Live," a fast-moving musical comedy, featuring such well known personages as Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Alice Faye, Patsy Kelly, Ned Sparks and Jack Haley, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as the week end feature offering. Comedians of contrasting types, given scenes together, accentuate each other's work. Nine popular song hits are featured in the music of the picture. The story is that of a smalltime vaudeville performer and his rise to fame. A whirlwind climax winds up in a gala floor show finale at a night club.

Rounding out the program is another special Coronation feature photographed in technicolor and thereby more effectively delineating the regal splendor of the event. Historical background leading to the coronation itself and intimate shots of British aristocracy posed in Royal regalia are said to be highly interesting. This feature presents a great deal of interesting picture material which was not shown in the newsreels.

Bride-Elect Is Honored

Shower for Miss Ruby Krivesky Held Last Evening

Last evening at the home of Mrs. J. Connery on Seventh Avenue, Miss Edith Connery and Miss Elsie Davis were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower held in honor of Miss Ruby Krivesky whose marriage to George L. The evening was spent playing cards the winners being Miss Aleda Johnson and Miss Edith Johnson. There was also a special chair prize which was won by Mrs. T. Fraser.

Dainty refreshments were served at midnight from the prettily decorated table which was centred with a large cake with a miniature bride and groom on top.
