Presbyterian Xmas Tree Is Held Last Eve

The annual Sunday School Christmas Tree entertainment of First Presbyterian Church took place last night in the church parlors, drawing out a goodly number of children as well as quite a few parents. The children presented an interesting program after which Santa Claus arrived on the scene to assist in the distributing of books, gifts, sweets and oranges.

John E. Davey was in charge of the evening's proceedings, assisted by the Sunday School teachers. The program included recitations by Jean Calderwood, Jackie Finlayson and Andrew Owens, songs by Donny Prendegast, Barbara Teng, Molly Frew, Ken Brocklesby and Bonnie Perkins, piano solos by Pat Carson, Viola Pendegast and Pat McClymont, Irish dance by Beatrice Ritchie and Bernice Eastwood and violin duet by Jack Eastwood and Bill Hunter. Accompanists were Mr. Davey, Mrs. E. J. Smith and Miss Nellie Lawrence.

From the Waterfront

The Tucks Inlet and Port Edward reduction plants have both closed down for the Christmas and New Year holiday season and may reopen next month, depending upon conditions prevailing then. Both plants have been busy for several weeks manufacturing oil from herring which had been running in Prince Rupert Harbor and other local waters.

Capt. Larry Thomson, who came north from Ioco as pilot for the Imperial Oil Co.'s tanker Albertolite, which sailed from here early this morning for Port San Luis, California, will sail on the Prince Rupert tonight on his return to Vancouver.

The Swedish freighter Olof Berg is due in Prince Rupert on Tuesday of next week to load a full cargo of grain from the local elevator for the United Kingdom or Continent. It will be the second grain ship to load here within a week.

Naas River Mail Carrier Has Bad Trip Up Stream

Ice piling up before a strong north wind around the mouth of the Naas River has been hampering Walter McMillan, mail carrier of the upper Naas, and his crew, from getting up the river on their return trip from Kincolith but they are hoping to get home before Christmas with over ninety sacks of mail which they have to carry over the ice.

Dan Matheson, who arrived in the city on the Catala Tuesday afternoon from Anyox, sailed by the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon on his return there.

VANCOUVER, December 23 (Canadian Press)— B. V. Anderson, chef on a Canadian National train between Vancouver and Edmonton while leaning out of a window on the train, had his glasses blown off by a gust of wind.
