Festive Season At Story Hour

Each Child Received a Gift This Morning

In keeping with the festive season, the Story Hour's theme this morning centered about Christmas and each child received a small gift. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. A. Barry and Mrs. Bernard Lundhal and opened with appropriate music. The enthusiastic audience enjoyed the stories of "Babouska," "Miss Merry Christmas," "The Jar of Rosemary" and "Why the Evergreen Keeps Its Leaves." The second chapter of the serial story, "The Box-Car Adventure," was related.

Next week's hour, for children four to eight years, will be in charge of Mrs. D. V. Smith and Miss Phyllis Hamblin. This will also be a Christmas program.

Mrs. L. I. Pugsley sailed on the Princess Adelaide last night for Vancouver. Dr. Pugsley is already in the south.
