Reds, Dodgers set for series

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

New York Yankees, who seldom have grown their own pitchers in recent years, suddenly have come up with an exceptional pair in Roland Sheldon and Bill Stafford. The two kids couldn't have come along at a better time.

The young righthanders were stung as relievers when Detroit regained first place by beating New York in Tuesday's second game. But both hustled back as starters and now have the Yankees within a half-game of the top in the American League race.

Los Angeles	34	48	.415	18½
Minnesota	33	48	.407	19
Kansas City	31	48	.392	20

They've given the Yankees consecutive, complete game shutouts.

Sheldon, 23, started it with a four-hit, 6-0 job against Cleveland Wednesday. Stafford, 22, continued it with a two-hitter against the Indians for a 4-0 victory Thursday night.

The last Yanks to pair for consecutive shutouts were Don Larsen and Bob Turley, against Washington on May 30-31, 1959.

Detroit stayed one percentage point ahead of New York by winning 3-0 at Boston on the eight-hit pitching of Phil Regan and Terry Fox. Baltimore missed a chance to snatch third place from Cleveland by losing 1-0 at Washington. Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City 4-3, with Early Wynn gaining his 291st career victory, and Los Angeles Angels, winning their sixth in a row, replaced Minnesota in eighth place by beating the Twins 12-11.

Stafford (7-4), a poised sophomore from Catskill, N.Y. allowed only two base runners. He struck out three, walked none and retired 20 in a row between Willie Kirkland's ground-rule double in the second inning and a leadoff single by Mike de la Hoz in the ninth.

Elston Howard belted a pair of solo homers for the Yankees. Dick Stigman (2-2) took the loss for the Indians, who have won but five of their last 19. The Indians have scored just one run in losing four straight games.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Cincinnati Reds, who open a four-game series with Los Angeles tonight, won their sixth in a row and kept a three-game lead in the National League by beating San Francisco Giants 3-2 Wednesday. The Dodgers thumped St. Louis 10-1, ruining Johnny Keane's managerial debut with the Cards as a successor to Solly Hemus.

Pittsburgh Pirates split a doubleheader at Chicago, breezing 15-3 before the Cubs bounced back for a 5-1 decision. Milwaukee Braves wrapped up a three-game sweep against last place Philadelphia Phillies with a 7-6 victory.

The Dodgers collected a dozen runs, all but two of them singles, and five unearned runs against the Cards, turning a 2-0 lead into a rout with a seven-run third inning against loser Bob Miller (1-3) and reliever Maury McDermott.

ST. PAUL (CP) — Zollo Versalles, young shortstop of the Minnesota Twins, failed to appear for a game here Wednesday night and immediately was fined $500 and suspended without pay.

Versalles, a 20-year-old Cuban, left the team Wednesday with a variety of excuses. When he failed to appear in the park Wednesday night, club president Calvin Griffith announced the penalties.

Swapping begins in NFL

NEW YORK (AP)—Player swapping in the National Football League moved into the midsummer sports spotlight in a big way today after New York Giants plucked two prize plums from Washington Redskins in a three-team deal also involving the Dallas Cowboys.

The Giants - Redskins - Cowboys deal involved eight players, the big trade bringing ends Jim Podoley and Joe Walton to New York from Washington.

At the same time, Cleveland Browns announced acquisition of quarterback John Roach from St. Louis in an exchange that sent halfback Prentice Gaut and rookie end Taz Anderson to the Cardinals.

Giants coach Allie Sherman instructed both Podoley and Walton to report to camp at Fairfield, Conn., July 17.

Giants owner Jack Mara said "Podoley and Walton are the men Sherman has been after me to get. Podoley has tremendous speed, and Walton not only can go get the ball but is a fine blocker."

To obtain them, the Giants sent to Washington placekicking specialist John Aveni, rookie end Jerry Daniels of Mississippi and defensive halfback Dave Witsell.

Top starters, relievers among NL all-star pitchers

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three of the league's top winning starters, two star relievers and ageless Warren Spahn were among eight pitchers named today to the National League all-star team.

Manager Danny Murtaugh of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates who will manage the National Leaguers in the all-star games at San Francisco July 11 and at Boston July 31, named five righthanders and three southpaws to the pitching staff.

Murtaugh also picked four infielders, four outfielders, and one catcher to supplement the eight starters, excluding pitchers, who were selected by a vote of the players themselves. In each position he named the second-place man in the balloting and then added Stan Musial of St. Louis Cardinals, who has appeared in 19 prevous all-star games.

PITCHERS NAMED

Righthand pitchers named by Murtaugh were Elroy Face of Pittsburgh Pirates; Joey Jay and Bob Purkey of Cincinnati Reds; Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia Phils and Stu Miller of San Francisco Giants. The southpaws were Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles Dodgers, Mike McCormick of Giants and Spahn of Milwaukee Braves.

Added to the infield were first baseman Dick Stuart of Pittsburgh, second baseman Don Zimmer of Chicago, shortstop Eddie Kasko of Cincinnati and third baseman Ken Boyer of St. Louis.

The four additional outfielders will be Musial, Hank Aaron of Milwaukee, George Altman of Chicago and Frank Robinson of Cincinnati.

John Roseboro of Los Angeles will be the second catcher.

The starters, named by the players and announced previously, will be first baseman Bill White, St. Louis; second baseman Frank Bolling, Milwaukee; shortstop Maury Wills, Los Angeles; third baseman Ed Mathews, Milwaukee; right fielder Roberto Clemente, Pittsburgh; centre field Willie Mays, San Francisco; left field Orlando Cepeda, San Francisco; and catcher Smoky Burgess, Pittsburgh.

Seattle losing ground to PCL lead challengers

By The Associated Press

Seattle Rainiers, who have specialized in winning cliff-hangers, tried hard for 13 innings but bowed 2-1 to Vancouver's Mounties and lost ground to three first division challengers in Thursday night's Pacific Coast League baseball action.

San Diego	39	45	.464	11
Spokane	34	44	.436	13
Salt Lake	29	51	.363	19

Tacoma edged San Diego 4-3 and climbed to within 2½ games of Seattle—one game ahead of Vancouver—and Portland got by Spokane 4-3 in 14 innings and moved within 4½ games of the top. Hawaii beat Salt Lake City 11-10 in another squeaker.

Two new managers made their PCL debut—Whitey Wietelmann for San Diego and Ray Katt for Portland. Wietelmann appeared as acting manager replacing Jimmy Reese who had resigned early in the day, and Katt succeeded Vern Benson who was called up to be coach for the parent St. Louis Cardinals.

Vancouver made it two straight over the Rainiers on Charley Lau's homer in the top of the 13th. A pair of doubles in the first inning put the Mounties ahead. They stayed there until the ninth when Bob Tillman tied it for Seattle with his ninth homer of the year.

Trying to end a prolonged losing streak, San Diego scored three runs for Wietelmann in the first four innings, but Tacoma exploded for four in the eighth to make it two straight over the Padres.

Portland won in the bottom of the 14th after two were out.

Gene Oliver was on first when Jim Hickman doubled on a 3 and 2 pitch to send in the go-ahead run. It was Portland's eighth straight win over the Indians, who have yet to beat the Beavers this season.

Hawaii scored seven runs in the sixth nining to pull ahead of the Bees. The big blow was Jim McManus' grand-slam homer. A Salt Lake rally in the seventh was cut short after two runs had scored.

Fashion edges Savoy crew

Fashion Footwear edged Savoy Hotel 11-10 in Senior Women's Softball League action last night at Gyro Park with a come-from-behind effort in the final two innings.

Savoy had taken a 9-5 lead in the fifth inning but Fashion came back with four in the sixth to tie it up.

In the top of the seventh and final inning Savoy tallied one run to hold a narrow lead.

Fashion came back with the tying run and then short stop Marg Jordan blasted a line drive deep into left field to score Gloria Green for the winning run.

It was pitcher Frances Doane's fourth win against one loss for the season. She allowed 12 hits, walked three and struck out three.

Loser Faye Torrion gave up 12 hits and six walks and struck out four.

Second baseman Millie Bellis of Fashion had a perfect night at plate hitting three for three while team mate Stella Nickle got two standup triples.

Top hitter for Savoy was third baseman Shirley Intermela with four hits in five trips.

Next regular game takes place Sunday as Fashion and Savoy meet in a rained-out game. Fashion will play high school Monday night.

Wallace returns to Argonauts

TORONTO (CP) — Stan Wallace came back to Toronto Thursday night, not to hunt for a house but to play football.

His return brought considerable relief to the Argonauts, who had been wondering for several days whether the defensive wizard of last year's Big Four season would stick to his threat to quit unless he found suitable accommodation here for his family.

Wallace told coach Lou Agase however, he had decided to play "even if it means living in a tent." He'll let the housing problem take care ofitself, leaving his wife and family back home in Champaign, Ill., until something turns up.

Kent school tops in Henley regatta

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP) — Kent School of Connecticut turned in a smooth-stroking performance on quiet waters today to defeat University College of Dublin by three-quarters of a length in the eight-oared crew eliminations for the Thames Challenge Cup at the Royal Henley regatta.

The New England schoolboys defeated University College by three-quarters of a length in the comparatively slow time of seven minutes, three seconds over the standard Henley course of one mile, 550 yards.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—World featherweight champion Davey Moore of Springfield, Ohio, rallied after a slow start to score a unanimous 10-round decision over veteran Gil Cadill of Mexico City in a non - title bout Thursday night.

Moore, 132, had his best round in the 10th when he dropped Cadilli, 120, to one knee early in the round.

HOCKEY PROMOTER — Conn Smythe, hockey coach and player, helped initiate construction of Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens in the 1930s after he and others bought the Toronto Maple Leaf hockey club in the National Hockey League. He became managing director of the huge arena in 1947. Smythe, born in Toronto in February, 1895, also developed horse racing interests in later years. — CP Photo
