RANGERS IN LEAD

Hockey Tide Turns More Favorably To Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings

NEW YORK, Nov. 25: (CP)—A six to two victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs last night enabled the New York Rangers to climb into first place in the National Hockey League standing.

At Montreal, the Canadiens got their first credit point of the season when they played an overtime tie draw with the New York Americans, the score being two all. The Canadiens scored their two goals in the first period but were unable to count again during the last two periods in the course of which the Americans equalized. The tie count put the Amerks on even terms with the Chicago Black Hawks and Boston Bruins for second place.

There was a turn of the tide in favor of the Detroit Red Wings when took a 4 to 2 victory from the Black Hawks at Detroit.

In week-end games Detroit will play at Toronto and Chicago at New York with the Americans tomorrow night while on Sunday the Canadiens will be at Detroit, the Americans at Boston and the Chicago Black Hawks at New York to play the Rangers.

LEARNING THEIR TRADES UNDER GOVERNMEN T SPONSORSHIP

Given an opportunity to learn trades through Ontario government projects under the Dominion-provincial youth training movement, the young men pictured here are making excellent use of their tuition period. The movement is jointly sponsored by federal and provincial Parliaments as a means of preparing unemployed youths for profitable positions in industry. The young man at the left is gathering his knowledge in a Brantford, Ont., moulding plant while at the right, age and youth meet to co-ordinate their knowledge and abilities in a machine shop. The tutor in this case is a farm machinery firm's veteran employee.

Future international tuna tournaments should be held at Wedgeport, near Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, thinks S. Kip Garrington big-game angler and writer. Farrington, who was a member of the United States team which with the British Empire squad was defeated by Cuba in the second international match at Liverpool, N.S., last August, said: "We are still trying to remedy the damage done by the farce of the team matches and I sincerely hope that it will be held in Wedgeport every year in the future." The 1938 match was held off the South Shore port where it was believed the August tuna would be larger than those caught off Wedgeport at the western tip of Nova Scotia. None of the Liverpool tuna weighed more than 70 pounds. The 1937 matches were held at Wedgeport.
