Pretty Wedding Saturday Evening

New Arrival from Pergamos Becomes Bride of Local Man at Home of James Killas

An interesting wedding took place on Saturday evening when Miss Theophanie Toloum Joglou of Pergamos, Asia Minor, became the bride of Peter Christopher Almer, son of Christopher and Nina Almar of Cyprus, Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, officiating. The wedding took place at the home of James Killas, Graham Avenue.

The bride looked very pretty in white satin with the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She was given in marriage by Mr. Killas. Miss Emily Christopher was bridesmaid and Nick Killas was groomsman. Mrs. Killas was matron of honor in rose beach lace while little Alicia Killas was a pretty flower girl. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of pink roses and carnations and the bridesmaid lilies and roses.

Following the ceremony there was a reception in which Mrs. Killas, assisted by Mrs. N. Christoprher recived the guests who came to congratulate the newlyweds. The capacity of the house was taxed to provide seating accomodation for the large number who shared in the wedding supper. The toast to the bride was proposed by N. Mussallem and there was community singing. The reception was continued until well past midnight, the bride taking part in some very interesting Greek dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Almer will live at the Besner Apartments.

One of the interesting features of the wedding was the fact that the bride could not speak a word of English although her husband, who has lived in Prince Rupert for the past two years, speaks the language well. He resided in the States for some years prior to coming to Prince Rupert. The bride arrived from Asia Minor two weeks ago.

Fine Musical Service Was Much Enjoyed

The special musical service at First United Church last evening was well attended and the music was much enjoyed. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. C. Jackson, who is attending conference in Vancouver, the senior choir had charge. Its rendering of "Radiant Morn," (H. H. Woodward) was very effective and the hymn "Praise the Lord," with descant for sopranos, sung by Mrs. R. G. Large and Miss I. Hodgson, was a notable success. Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Large, in their duet, Dr. Large, in his solo, an arrangement of Handel's "Largo," and the mixed quartet "Come Unto Me," Mrs. Larg, Mrs. H. T. Lock, J. S. Wilson and Dr. R. G. Large—were all very good. The choir, in its rendering of the arrangement by Sir Walford Davies of "God Be In My Head," made a very impressive item.

A very interesting talk by the choir leader, J. S. Wilson, on "Hymns of the Church" took the place of the regular sermon. The priceless heritage of poetry and music in the hymnary was stressed. The story of the origin of universal canticles, the development of various types of hymns and their connection with various periods in the peoples' lives made interesting features. The new hymnary was a treasury of the best hymns of three churches and of hymnody in general. Mr. Wilson also suggested that, while people should remember the old familiar hymns, they should be ready to learn new hymns and new tunes.

The singing of hymns by the congregation was carried out with enthusiasm. Miss S. Olafson A.T.C.M. was organist and played appropriate perludes, postludes and voluntary.

Two seaplanes were in port yesterday afternoon. Shortly after noon Pilot Bob Ellis arrived from Ketchikan to pick up a passenger from Seattle who had arrived on a Canadian Airways plane. Pilot Small, which came in from the south shortly thereafter. Later in the afternoon both planes headed Alaskawards.
