Dr. McCombe Tells of Medical Inspection of Railway Employees

MONCTON, N.B., Aug. 26.—"The work of our medical inspection services has been making good since it was inaugurated and with the addition of the Trans-Canada Air Lines there has been added that of medical inspection of those connected with the air services," stated Dr. J. A. McCombe, chief medical officer of the Canadian National Railways, when passing through Moncton yesterday enroute to Charlottetown where he will confer with railway doctors in connection with the work of the medical services of the railway.

Some ten or so local halibut boats are now engaged in black cod fishing. They are operating well up towards Cape Omaney and the trips take about ten days' time. The price bein paid locallyg for black cod is three cents per pound. Yesterday the Petersburg boat Teddy J. was in with 20,000 pounds of black cod. There was no halibut in yesterday.

Mrs. Gus Ross of Lawn Hill, Queen Charlotte Islands, came in on the Prince Charles last evening on the way to Vancouver. Her husband died in Vancouver this week.
