CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT

Proposals for Private Trailer Park

The City Council invites proposals from private persons for the establishment of a trailer park in the City to accommodate tourist traffic. With the advent of the Alaska Ferry this year it is felt the demand for this type of accommodation will be substantial and the City Council is prepared to consider all proposals to establish and operate such facilities.

Any information or details required may be obtained upon application to the City Administrator. Persons interested in submitting a proposal must inform the City Administrator by 5:00 p.m. May 11, 1962.
