Busy Day in Port With Five Coastal Liners in—Viscera and Shark Livers Being Marketed

With five coastal liners making calls, this is a busy day along Prince Rupert Docks. At 7:30 this morning C.N.R. Prince John, Capt. Edward Mabbs, here for the first time since having been commissioned in a general freighting service along the coast several weeks ago, arrived in port from the Skeena River, where she had been loading canned salmon, and, southbound from here to Vancouver, will call on the Queen Charlotte Islands. At 9 a.m. C.P.R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. William Palmer, northbound from Vancouver to Skagway with a large party of Alaska tourist passengers, arrived, sailing a couple of hours later for the north whence she is due to call here next Wednesday afternoon on the southbound voyage. The Charlotte had 196 passengers, two disembarking here and two going north aboard her. On time at 10 o'clock this morning, C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. James Watt, arrived in port from Vancouver, Ocean Falls and Powell River and will sail at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox and Stewart whence she is due back here tomorrow evening southbound. C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. William Hughes, is due at 7:15 p.m. from Vancouver and waypoints and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return south. Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, is due at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning from the south, sailing at 9:30 a.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

The Whiz Fish Co. has started buying halibut viscera at Seattle, paying 10c per pound for it. Since early in July the J. H. Carson Co. has been buying viscera at Prince Rupert.

Some of the Seattle halibut boats, incidental to their fall codfishing activity, have started selling livers of soup fin sharks for the vitamin content. Twenty cents per pound is being paid. The Lively and Freya are among boats which have recently sold the shark livers at Seattle.

Acropolis Wins Softball Game

Defeated Westview in Senior Playground League Last Night

The second round of the senior boys' division of the Gyro Softball League commenced last night at the Ball Park with Acropolis defeating Westview 15 to 5.

Acropolis, being home team, took the field first and retired their opponents without a hit being scored. They started their own half of the first inning by scoring two runs on Magnet's three-base hit and a hit by Tassie.

In the second inning, Westview scored a run on three hits and a walk to keep the score close but, in Acropolis' half of this inning, blew up in the field to allow the Hill boys to score seven runs. Acropolis picked up singletons in the fourth and fifth innings and completed the rout by scoring four runs in the sixth to give them a total of 15.

Westview managed to get the fans off their hands in only one inning, the sixth, when Magnet temporarily lost control and walked the first three men to face him in this inning. Hits by Killas and Blackhall and one more walk enabled the west-enders to push over four runs but in the next inning they were held scoreless.
