Tractor On Unuk Trail

Trail To Be Widened To Permit Of Transportation

KETCHIKAN, Dec. 9:—The Unuk River trail will be widened so the Seluwke Mining company can haul supplies in with a tractor this winter, Stanley Bishop, Unuk River trader and trapper, is informed. It is a good pack trail now, he says, all the way to the boundary.

Mr. Bishop expects to leave Ketchikan on the mail boat and be in the Unuk country until February.

More than six trappers plan to be active there this winter, he says. Among them are Fred (Blue River Shorty) Nagle, Harvey Mattney, Mr. Bishop, his brother, Bob, and father, Preston, and George King.

IN TIE FOR LEADERSHIP

Canadian National Recreation Association and Gyro Club Deadlocked at Top of Commercial Bowling League

The Canadian National Railways Recreation Association won only one game against two for Imperial Oil in the Commercial Bowling League Thursday evening but it was enough to put the railwaymen into a tie with Gyro Club for the league leadership. In the second fixture of the evening Printers scored a clean sweep three game to nil victory over Savoy Hotel, the typographers, as a result, moving into a tie with Angus Apartments for third place.

SPORT CHAT

This week-end finds the Vancouver Lions still leading the Pacific Coast Hockey League standing with a margin of two points or one full game over the Portland Buckaroos. The Lions lost to the Buckaroos Thursday night but held their lead through having won over Seattle the night previous. The Pacific Coast League puck race is proving a close and interesting one this winter.

It's a long while since Man O'War's pounding hoofs beat a cash-winning tempo on race tracks but "Big Red" is still king of the turf by virtue of the money earned by horses he has sired. Nowadays he takes it easy on Samuel D. Riddle's farm near Lexington, Ky. War Beauty, a 2-year old filly and winner of the Selima Stakes at Laurel the past season, is his latest outstanding representative. His get includes two Derby winners, War Admiral and Clyde Van Deusen.
