UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Marie Mussallem Becomes Bride of Allen Frith-Smith At Pretty Home Ceremony

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Mussallem, a pretty wedding took place at 9 o'clock this morning when Miss Marie Mussallem was united in marriage to Allen McGregor Frith-Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frith-Smith of Vancouver. The ceremony took place before a pink and white bridal arch which was beautifully decorated with honeysuckle. Rev. E. W. Slater of the Anglican Mission boat Northern Cross officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a charming frock of sunset gold crepe studded with black and white polka dots. To complete her costume she wore black shoes and a black taffeta hat encircled with a gathered white crepe band. Her corsage was composed of pink and white talisman roses.

The bride was attended by her youngest sister, Miss Adele Mussallem, who wore a golden dress in keeping with the bride's costume.

William Trotter of Prince George was groomsman.

During the entry of the bridal party and at departure from the room, wedding music was played by Miss Helen McCaffery.

A reception followed at which the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother who was handsomely attired in maroon transparent velvet trimmed with gold, wearing a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The toast to the bride was proposed by M. P. McCaffery, the groom responding. The groomsman read a number of congratulatory telegrams.

The bride's table was covered with a beautiful hand embroidered cutwork cloth. There were pink candles in silver sconces and flowers were red roses. The bride cut a handsome three-tier decorated wedding cake.

Mrs. M. P. McCaffery and Mrs. George Eckerman poured and the serviteurs were Miss Sheila Frith-Smith, sister of the groom, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Miss Helen McCaffery, Mrs. William Brooksbank, Mrs. W. J. Currie, Miss Maxine Heilbroner, Miss Eleanor Moxley and Mrs. George Gunn. Catering was in the hands of Rupert Bakery.

Later the happy couple left by the morning train for Smithers whence they will motor through the interior to Vancouver where they will take up residence.

The bride's life-long home has been in Prince Rupert, she having been born here. She taught school for a few years in the district. The groom is engaged in the metal trade in Vancouver. The couple will have hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends.

Miss Isabel Duffus left on this morning's train to visit her parents at Telkwa.

W. B. Truesdale, treasurer of the Inland Steel Corporation of Winataka, Illinois, and Mrs. Truesdale were passengers aboard the Princess Alice this morning going north to make the round trip to Alaska.

Mrs. Ben Dodds and Mrs. Clarke McLean left on this morning's train for Hazelton where they will spend a few weeks visiting as the guests of Constable and Mrs. J. H. Ward.

Miss Peggy Large was a passenger east today enroute to Lakelse Lake where she will spend the next month holidaying with Norma and Lydia Watt.
