NO CHANCE FOR PEACE

Looks Like Hitler Will Not Be Able To Bring Italo-Greek Conflict To Close

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9: — The mutual assurance of King George that his country will continue to fight to victory and of President Roosevelt that the United States will give Greece aid in its struggle against aggression are taken here as a definite setback to the plan of Chancellor Hitler of Germany to bring the Italo-Greek war to a conclusion.

The King of Greece, in a message to President Roosevelt, said that Greek and other southeastern European nations looked upon United States as the "last bulwark of human freedom." Besides to President Franklin D. Roosevelt himself, the Greek king appealed to merchants, bankers and industrial leaders of the United States for aid.

SECRET POPPIES

Opium poppies are being cultivated in an experimental plot of one acre "somewhere in Victoria" to relieve the shortage of drugs here. Growing poppies is prohibited except by licence.

SPORTS

Basketball Buzz

Generally classed as one of Alaska's finest basketball quintettes, the Petersburg, Alaska, hoopsters, left Ketchikan at 1 o'clock this morning and should be in Prince Rupert this afternoon. Tomorrow night they will open a two-game series with local "Savoys." The locals have been somewhat weakened through the absence on war duty of such towers of strength as Lindsay, etc., but, nevertheless, they expect to put up a good showing.

The series commands more than usual interest. It is the first time the Petersburgers have ever been here and, apart from that, the visitation is a token of the friendship existing internationally between Canada and the United States. Expectations are that there will be a large turn-out if for no other reason than the sentimental one.

Novel features are being introduced in connection with the staging of the games at the Exhibition Hall. A public address system is being installed. As each team moves on to the floor, national anthems will be played. The Canadian and American flags will be carried by the players. Members of the Petersburg team will be introduced individually to the audience.

The Bo-Me-Hi boys, last year's Intermediate A champions, having progressed thus far in the city league without losing a game, will meet Young Men's Christian Association in a challenge game Tuesday night as a preliminary to the Petersburg-Prince Rupert match. Coach Walter Ferguson is confident his boys will make things interesting for the Y.M.C.A. which is an all-star team picked from the local garrison.

The High School team will consist of Mel Bussey and Alex Bill, last year's first string guards; Stan Scherk, centre; Oliver Stanterbane, who is fast developing into the best centre in the league; Don McCavour, who is doing a-nice job of playing first string forward and relieving at guard, and Dave Oland and Bruce Dieldal, rookies, who are just beginning to get used to the team's style of play. A large crowd of supporters is expected to be on hand to cheer the "kids" along in this tangle with the seniors.

The Prince Rupert-Petersburg series will not be broadcast, it is announced. Principal entertainment feature for the visitors will be a dance Wednesday evening following the second game.
