Yacht Movements Are Made Easier

The British Columbia Travel Bureau advised the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night that there had been relaxation recently of restrictions governing cruising by foreign yachts in British Columbia coastal waters. All now required was that such yachts report at the neval examination centres of Victoria, Nanaimo, Vancouver and Prince Rupert and receive clearances which would permit them to come and go at will in these respective areas.

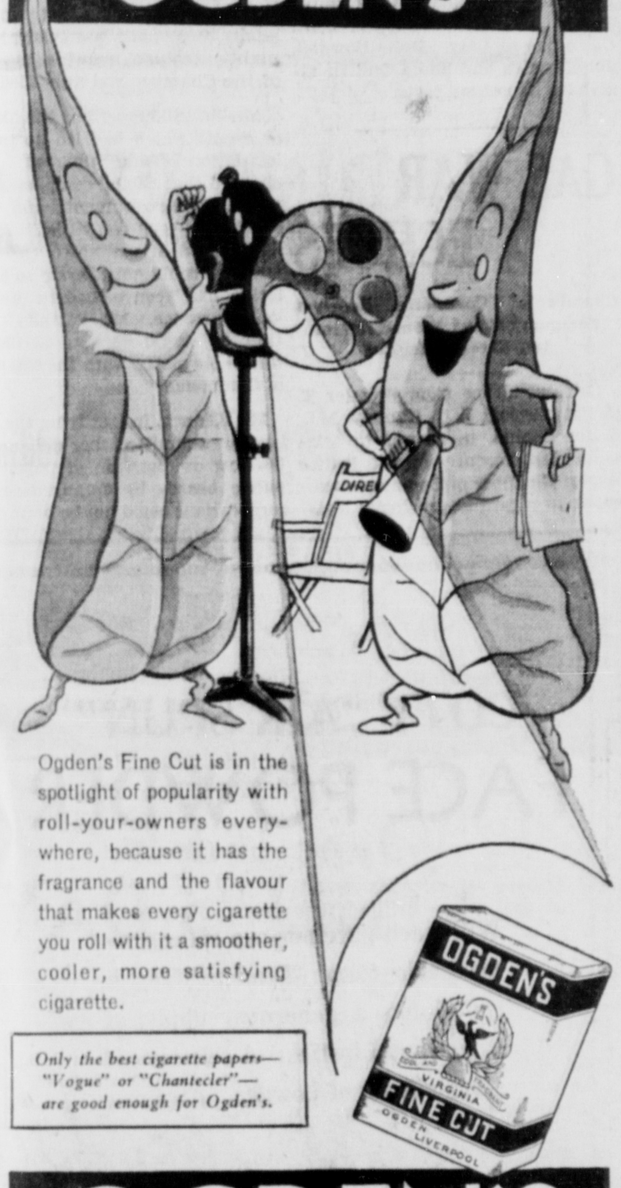
SPOTLIGHT ON OGDEN'S



Ogden's Fine Cut is in the spotlight of popularity with roll-your-owners everywhere, because it has the fragrance and the flavour that makes every cigarette you roll with it a smoother, cooler, more satisfying cigarette.

Only the best cigarette papers—"Vogue" or "Chantecler"—are good enough for Ogden's.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Tonight's train, due from the East at 11 o'clock, was reported this afternoon to be on time.

Mrs. J. Moran left on last evening's train for Rochester, Minnesota, to consult at Mayo Clinic.

Jack Unwin of the 102nd. Battery sailed this afternoon on the Catala for a trip to Vancouver on leave.

Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, who recently retired from the staff of the Indian Agent's office here, sailed this afternoon on the Catala for a visit in Vancouver.

Mrs. Robert Blance and daughter, Mrs. L. M. Gordon, left on last evening's train for Lake Kathlyn where Mrs. Blance plans on spending the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Johnsen and family sailed on the Catala this afternoon for Vancouver enroute to Oliver where Dr. Johnson will take up future practice of dentistry.

G. W. Cripps, provincial assessor, and J. G. Garrett, deputy provincial assessor and collector, returned to the city on the Catala this morning from a trip to Alice Arm and Anyox on official duties.

A letter from the Niagara Frontier Planning Board taking certain exceptions to the St. Lawrence Waterway project came up at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and was sent to the legislative committee for report.

VETERAN'S HOME GUARD—Veterans of the Great War—Canadian or Imperial—may register at Canadian Legion Clubrooms for Home Guard. Must not be over 50 years. Travelling medical board will examine applicants at a date to be notified. Pay and allowances will be C.A.S.F. rates. (Tues., Thurs, Sat.)

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, decided to file without action a communication from the Princeton Board of Trade seeking endorsation for the completion of the Hope-Princeton trail highway. The local chamber felt it did not have sufficient knowledge of or interest in the project to take action.

Correspondence read at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce included a communication from the British Columbia Travel Bureau pointing out that a limit had been placed on the size of trailers to be used on the Cariboo Highway. The limit is thirty-six feet overall for car and trailer.

S. O. N. Dance, June 6. (131)

Mrs. E. Walls sailed on the Catala Sunday night for a visit to Port Simpson.

Charles Graham, inspector of mines, left on last evening's train for a trip to Telkwa on official duties.

Mrs. Ernest Brown of Nelson is paying a visit in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Frank Guest sailed this afternoon on the Catala for Victoria where he will join the Navy. Mr. Guest served in the Royal Navy in the last war.

Owing to the heavy rains last evening it was necessary to postpone the drive to see the Westview gardens planned by the Horticultural Society. No new date has been set for the event.

H. R. Beard of the scientific department of the Canadian Fishing Co. sailed by the Catala this afternoon on his return to Vancouver after a visit here on official duties.

Dr. R. H. Bedford, formerly of the scientific staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station and now located in San Francisco, sailed by the Catala this afternoon on his return south after a week's visit to the city.

BLACKHEADS

Don't squeeze blackheads—dissolve them. Get two ounces of peroxine powder from any drug store and apply gently with wet, hot cloth over blackheads. They dissolve and disappear by this safe simple method

A communication from the Canadian Legion, read at the regular monthly dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night, drew attention to the importance of welfare of ex-service men and their dependents not being overlooked during the present time of stress and the alleviation of their distress being given due attention.

The regular monthly dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was held last night in Boston Cafe with President W. M. Watts in the chair and a fair attendance of members. Welcome was extended by the president to A. S. Nickerson, president of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, and two new members in the persons of George Eckerman and L. B. Lambly. Regular monthly meetings of the Chamber are being suspended for the months of July and August, any business arising between now and September to be handled by the executive.

Provincial Constable W. J. Abel and Provincial Constable J. W. Downey sailed this afternoon on the Catala for points down the coast on summer duty, the former going to Butedale and the latter to Namu.

Matt Teigen, well known interior trapper, who has been spending the winter in the Bowser Lake country north of Stewart, arrived in the city on the Catala this morning from the north and will proceed from here by train to Hazelton.

Robert Matthews of Premier arrived in the city from the north on the Catala this morning to spend the week in town. His sister, Miss Muriel Matthews of Vancouver, is coming north on the Princess Adelaide this Friday.

Circular letters from British Columbia House in London and the provincial Department of Mines were referred to at the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commermce last night but were filed without being read in detail.

William McFarlane, well known pioneer Alice Arm prospector and mining man, passed through the city aboard the Catala today on his way to Vancouver whence he will proceed to Tofino district on the West Coast of Vancouver Island and to join G. W. Bruggy, formerly of Alice Arm, in prospecting work.

The County Court case of Robert Frizzell vs. Prudential Trust Co. Ltd. and Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association (trustee for the Porcher Island Mines Ltd., bankrupt) has been settled out of court. The action was for $205.60. T. W. Brown was counsel for the plaintiff and W. O. Fulton for defendant

A letter from the federal Department of Finance, read at the regular monthly meeting last night of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, announced the appointment of Chris Spencer of Vancouver as provincial chairman of the war savings campaign. The appointment of a local committee was proposed and nominations for same invited.

President W. M. Watts advised members of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at the regular monthly dinner meeting last night that Hon. Kenji Nakauchi, Japanese consul from Vancouver, would be a visitor here on Wednesday of this week and that arrangements had been made for a meeting of the executive of the Chamber with him that afternoon. All members of the Chamber who desire to meet Mr. Nakauchi may also attend the meeting.
