COMEDY IS PRESENTED

TERRACE, May 1: (CP) — The Anglican Woman's Auxiliary on Thursday evening staged an amusing play entitled "Billy Goat." The proceeds, counting up to a satisfactory total, will be used to defray the expenses of necessary repairs around the church building.

The play was very amusing. It told the story of a rich Mr. Carter who, tiring of the incessant demands upon his purse by Mrs. Carter and the two daughters, jumps at the chance when a salesman calls at the house to go off on a holiday and rest cure for his gout, leaving the salesman in charge of the house and the family. Mr. Hay, the salesman, finds the job of running the home a bit too much for him, so he pretends that the Carter firm has suddenly become bankrupt. The result of this experiment is surprising. Mrs. Carter bravely gets a job in a laundry. One daughter elopes with her boy friend while Madge, the other daughter, makes things embarrassing as she and the maid are evidently falling in love with Hay. In the midst of the confusion in the household the irascible Mr. Carter arrives home where everyone tries to explain and everyone causes more confusion. The story ends happily, however, the eloping daughter returns repentant, Mr. Hay's experiment is exposed and the rich Mr. Carter resumes his career of writing cheques. A. Attree, as Mr. Carter, acted the part naturally and with vigour ;Rev. C. A. Hinchliffe as Mr. Hay, showed surprising histrionic talent. Miss Elliott Head took the part of Madge. Miss Frances Dover was the maid. Mrs. C. L. M. Giggey acted very well as Mrs. Carter. Mrs. Melville Forbes was the eloping daughter.

Intervals between acts were filled by the two Dubeau boys, both in their early teens—Alan with a piano solo, Dicky with his saxaphone. Both these boys are promising musicians.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.
A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

Service Of Remembrance

Kitsegukla Mourns for Youth Who Lost Life in Skeena—Body Not Yet Recovered

KITSEGUKLA, May 1.—Remembrance services were held at Kitsegukla at the end of the week for Reuben Wesley, sixteen-year-old native youth, who was drowned in a canoe accident recently when the boat in which he was crossing the Skeena River capsized. On Saturday there was a service at the home of Joseph Wesley, father of deceased, while on Sunday the Young People's Club conducted a service in the United Church. Both services drew large attendance.

Members of the Kitsegukla Athletic Club and of the Young People's Club have been engaged for a week since the accident in dragging the river but with no success in recovering the body. The operations are being continued and a reward has been offered by the family and friends.

Reuben Wesley, one of the popular boys of Kitsegukla community, is widely mourned. Besides his father, he is survived by five brothers — Edward, Mathias, Walter, Douglas and Herbert Wesley—and a sister, Kathleen.
