South won with the ace, led a club to the ace and ruffed a club. He returned to dummy with the jack of diamonds and ruffed another club. He then led his last diamond to dummy and, on the fourth round of clubs, declarer ruffed in with the queen of spades. He had played the preceding tricks in such rapid order that he hoped to lure West into the rhythm: Had West been hurried into overruffing South's queen, the defense would have North collapsed, for West would have 2 h to lead a spade and sacrifice Pass Pass his second trump trick, or a diamond, which permits declarer to ruff in dummy and A careful diagnosis of the sit- discard his losing heart.
