GOOD WORK DONE BY THE LADIES AUXILIARY

Comprehensive Report of Finances Showing Amounts of Money Raised and How It Was Spent—Concerted Action by Ladies Praiseworthy

Owing to the number of enquiries made by interested citizens, as to what has been done with the money which passed through the hands of the Woman's Auxiliary of the General Hospital here, it has been thought wise to publish the amount of money the ladies raised and state just what it was spent for. It will probably give the average person some idea of what it costs to equip an hospital, as well as allow for the wear and tear on the supplies for such an institution. The amount of material supplied may seem altogether too large for a small institution, but it must be remembered that materials are almost constantly in use, and there should be a reserve stock large enough to admit of generous use in case of emergency. Altogether the retiring Board of the Woman's Auxiliary feel that they made a good beginning, and that there should be a concerted effort on the part of the majority of the women to assist in this work.

A CHARMING WEDDING HELD

In Decorated Church to Fine Music Miss Margaret Macneil became the Bride of Mr. Frank J. Miedecter This Morning.

This morning witnessed a very charming wedding ceremony in the Roman Catholic church. The bride was Miss Margaret Macneil and the bridegroom Mr. Frank J. Miedecter, both of Prince Rupert. As maid of honor to the bride Miss Agnes Gray took graceful part, and the bridegroom was supported by Mr. Charles Madigan as best man. The church was decorated beautifully for the occasion by Mrs. Davis, and was crowded with the friends of the young couple's. Looking very pretty in her bridal array the bride entered the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. R. Koller. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Father Bunoz, and appropriate musical selections characterized the whole service, which took place at nine a.m.

Mayor Threatens to Use Power of Veto

Ald. Morrissey also attacked the Finance Minister, stating that he seemed to have a personal animosity against the city clerk ever since he had been elected to the council.

This Ald. Douglas denied, saying that he was merely attending to the people's interests. Everybody was after him about those raises. (Laughter).

The mayor in his own defence declared that most of the increases mentioned by Ald. Morrissey had been granted by the council in his absence, and he as chairman had had little opportunity to protest. If those councillors granting the raises were not men enough to stand by their position it was not his fault. (Cheers). The matter remains with the finance committee.

London Fur Market.

The London March sales showed extremely strong market on all kinds of furs and substantial advances over January prices were made on a number of the leading lines. Mink remained the same, while marten advanced 5%, otter 25% beaver 15%, musk rat 15%, black bear 15%. Red fox declined 10%, while white fox advanced 10%. Wolf 15% over last January. At our last sale, as shown in this sheet, prices were fully 20% higher than those shown in ony of the London March sales. The offerings and quality were above the average for the time of year, and shows that trappers are confining their catch to the open season provided by law, and we advise all traders and dealers strongly to refuse to buy any skins not so caught. Ship your furs along on the good market, which may not always continue.
