Cambrai Chapter Is Keeping Busy

New Members Accepted—Opening Workroom—Turning Out Refugee Clothing

The regular monthly meeting of Cambrai Chapter, which had been postponed due to the blackout, was held yesterday afternoon in the Canadian Legion Hall.

New members accepted were Mrs. J. J. Gibson, Mrs. L. M. Gordon and Mrs. W. J. Scott.

It was decided to have the workroom in the two front rooms at the library when available.

Mrs. Lyle Swain reported a good output of war work stating that last month $34.15 in refugee clothes alone was sent out besides field comforts. There is to be another shipment of goods this Thursday and members were asked to leave their contributions at Wrathall's store.

It was decided to make up the usual Christmas hampers for the needy and a shower of canned goods, etc. will be held at Mrs. O. C. Young's home Sunday next.

A municipal meeting will be held January 5 at Mrs. Ed. Lindseth's home.
