PRINCE GEORGE

So far the Red Cross membership drive in the Prince George district has brought in a total of $625 from the city of Prince George itself, Central Fort George, South Fort George and Shelley.

For the third consecutive year an anonymous donation of $90 in Australian coupons has been turned over to the Prince George Hospital.

A trial blackout is to be held in Prince George early in the New Year. A program of training for ARP wardens has commenced. The air raid warning will be given by the Canadian National Railways round-house whistle.

The provincial government has made a special grant of $350 to the Pineview school district in order to assist it in keeping down taxation.

Mrs. May Theresa Foster, wife of George Foster, passed away in the Prince George Hospital at the first of last week at the age of forty-two years following a lengthy illness. Born in England, she is survived by her widower and one daughter, and one son. The funeral was held Wednesday from St. Michael's Anglican Church with Rev. Samuel Pollinger officiating. Pallbearers were William Lockey, S. Clare, D. G. Fraser, L. McLean, C. Haydon and J. Quayle.

Silly, isn't it? Not sign language but Merry Christmas spelled backward—just to prove that no matter how you spell it, it still means the very best of wishes from us to you. Honest.
