Massett Club Elects Officers For Coming Year

Mrs. Sam Simpson Heads Community Organization With H. R. Frost as Secretary.

MASSETT, Nov. 3:—On Saturday evening, Oct. 18, the annual meeting of the new Massett Community Club was held in the Community Hall. The president, Dr. Dunn, was in the chair. He spoke of the past year's achievements in connection with the Community Hall. The hall has been beautifully lined and the stage finished in beaverboard. A lighting plant has been installed and a library added. He also spoke of the splendid co-operation between the committee members and himself and also the club members. The minutes of the last nnual meeting and the financial statement were read and passed after which the officers for the coming year were elected:

President—Mrs. Sam Simpson.
Vice-president—Wes. Singer.
Secretary—H. R. Frost.
Treasurer—Mrs. Max Marx.
Social—Mrs. Ian Pearson.
Debating and music—Rev. J. Murray.
Dramatics—Ed Pongs.
Sports—C. Minaker.
Welfare—Mrs. H. R. Frost.

Mrs. M. L. Dunn and Mrs. Phil Burton were re-elected to take charge of the library.

The Bridge Club branch of the Community Club held their first meeting on the 20th, electing Mrs. Phil Burton president, Dr. J. C. S. Dunn secretary-treasurer, and a three-member committee. There will probably be four tables of steady members through the winter.

The Badminton Club has also started the winter play. They play twice a week and have about 20 members enrolled.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 3: (AP)—Sweden will not sell its liberty at any price, and the people "are prepared to fight and die for the country's freedom," said the newspaper Sudsvonska Dagbladet, discussing this neutral country's preparedness.

Silver Patch Apron Interesting Event, Massett Red Cross

Sum of $18.95 Realized From Those Who Took Part in Tea Feature.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 22, the ladies of Massett entertained with a whist drive and dance in honor of the men of the H.M.S. Cougar. A very enjoyable evening was spent and much appreciation shown by the men.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29, a Red Cross tea was held in the Community Hall for the opening of the "Silver Patch Apron." The Silver Patch Apron was a new idea for raising money for the Red Cross. A big white apron was made by Mrs. Dunn, who took it round to the different people and everyone had to sew a patch on the apron enclosing a coin and a piece of original poetry. When the apron was covered with patches a tea was held at which the patches were opened. Everyone present had a guess at how much money the apron contained. Mrs. Wes. Singer was the closest with a guess of $19.85, and the apron patches contained $19.56. The poems were then read by Mrs. Frost. There were so many good ones that it was difficult to pick a winner. In the end about six of the best were put in a hat and a winner picked. Mrs. A. Anderson won on the draw.

Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Dowes, Mrs. Burton and Mrs. Rutter were in charge of the kitchen. Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Anderson and Misses Dawn Martin and Esther Ombrach attended the tables. Mrs. Phil Burton was in charge of the home-cooking table.

During the afternoon music was enjoyed, vocal solos being by Mrs. S. Simpson, Mrs. Ian Pearson and Miss Dulcie Cross, and piano selections by Mrs. Ed Pongs and Master Eugene Simpson and David Singer.

A little more than $40 was taken in during the afternoon.

Great Salvage Work . . .

The Armour Salvage Company has again sustained its reputation as expert salvage operators. It took the schooner Eider from Green Top Island and placed her in dry dock at Prince Rupert in one week. While the Eider is not a very large vessel she is large enough to present an interesting salvage problem.

Full and Free Discussion . . .

We are glad to know that Prime Minister Mackenzie King has had a full and free discussion of war problems with President Roosevelt. Evidently he was deputed by the British government to discuss questions of importance as well as those which affected Canada only. Such discussions can be of great benefit to all countries concerned except Germany.

Little Damage . . .

Dover and other towns and villages along the coast of the Straits of Dover are within reach of the big German guns on the other side but yet they do not seem to have suffered as much as some parts of London. People are still living in their homes and only now and then are they disturbed by the cannonading from the coast of France. The cost of firing those guns is too great for the amount of military advantage. That is why bombardment is not more frequent, not because they are soft-hearted.
