GOLF CLUB GOES AHEAD

Plans Finally Approved and Company Being Incorporated to Take Over Course

The pitch and putt golf course, which has been discussed by the Chamber of Commerce a number of times, seems likely to come to fruition. A new survey has been made by Major D. M. Lowe, eliminating some of the objections of the railway officials, and, during the recent visit of W. T. Moodie, general superintendent, the plans were approved and the backers of the club told they might go ahead and incorporate the company with the assurance that the railway would do its part as soon as the new incorporation was completed. W. O Fulton, who has the incorporation plans in hand told the Chamber of Commerce this week that there would be no further delay. Shares would be sold at $50 each and he hoped each member of the Chamber would take two or three.

Smithers Mourns Cy Arnett Death

Vancouver Contractor Was Well Known There as Well as Elsewhere Throughout North

SMITHERS, January 17—Many old timers of Smithers received a shock when they heard that "Cy" Arnett, the well known Vancouver contractor had passed away that day in Vancouver.

Mr. Arnett was very well known to all the pioneers of the early days all along the railway from Prince Rupert to the interior and his sociable and congenial nature made him friends wherever he went.

The firm, W. C. Arnett, of which he was the head had just completed a contract building a road for the Provincial Government to the new Mercury mine at Pinchi Lake, near Fort St. James, and is at present engaged on a contract on the Skeena Highway near Usk.

In supervising these contracts Mr. Arnett had visited Smithers a number of times recently, always renewing his old acquaintances in the district. He was due in Smithers again this week where he intended to pick up his car which had been left here for repairs and drive it to Vancouver.

Mr. Arnett was a superintendent for Foley, Welch & Stewart along the Skeena during the construction of the railway and got to know all the people along the line at that time. Many of those are still in the country and were grieved to hear of his passing while still a comparatively young man.

Herbie Morgan Tells of Going to Adnacs vs. Dominoes—Enjoying Life in Military Camp

Writing home from Victoria where he is in military tranng, Herb Morgan of the Daily News staff tells of having seen one of the British Columbia senior championship basketball games between New Westminster Adanacs and Victoria Dominoes. Being one of Prince Rupert star players, he was, of course, keenly interested in this game.

All the Prince Rupert boys are together in camp at Gordon Head, Morgan writes. Last Sunday 1000 of the young men participated in church parade led by the Salvation Army band.

All are enjoying the life.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Herring are still slow in showing up in this vicinity in quantities sufficient for seining. On Wednesday the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. packers Chief Tapeet, Capt. Horace Tattersal, and Chief Seegay, Capt. Ralph Green, were in with loads from Union Pass. Yesterday the Chief Tapeet was in from there with another load. The run is exceptionally late in developing this year although it has been known in the past not to start in any volume until February.

Aboard the C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, which was in port from 3:45 to 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, were sixty passengers. Four disembarked at this port and six took passage from here for Vancouver.
