Parliament Reopens - - -

Parliament reopened its session yesterday after a rather lengthy midwinter vacation which gave the ministers time to get their estimates and any new legislation ready for consideration. One of the main subjects for discussion is likely to be progress of Canada's part in the war. There will be some criticism of the war contracts. That is inevitable. Contracts are always dangerous to governments and especially war contracts. The chief satisfaction to the public is that, of any profits which are made, the government will take back 75 per cent in income tax.

There will undoubtedly be many who feel that, while the government has made good progress with its war preparations, they might have done more. That would be true of any government no matter how much it did. It gives a safe opportunity for criticism.

There is likely to be another discussion of the Sirois report when the government reports to Parliament in regard to the proceedings at the conference.

War expenditures and taxation are likely subjects for disagreement. The main idea running through all criticism will be a desire of all parties or groups to give full support to the war.

C.C.F. Methods - - -

The C.C.F. seems to find that the truly democratic method is not always conducive to progress. Attempts have been made in some of the C.C.F. clubs in British Columbia to discuss all proposed policies in detail prior to their being implemented in legislation or brought before the legislature. This has not worked well. C.C.F. club members like to talk and when they get down to details they cannot always distinguish between possible and the impossible. Questions of constitutionality are not understood and common law is swept aside with a ruthless hand. The result is that there seems to be a movement going on for greater trust in elected representatives, holding them responsible for results and replacing them with other representatives if not found satisfactory.

PT. SIMPSON WON GAMES

Defeated Metlakatla in Pair Of Basketball Matches Last Week

PORT SIMPSON, Feb. 18:—Two Metlakatla basketball teams visited Port Simpson last week for a series of games against Port Simpson Athletic Club, the visitors going down to defeat in both games.

The intermediate game was close and exciting, the teams being particularly well matched, and the final score was 49 to 45 in favor of Port Simpson.

The individual scoring was as follows:

Metlakatla—H. Leighton, 19; E. Leighton, 9; C. Nelson, 14; F. Robinson, 1; A. Leighton, 1; F. Auckland, 1; Horace Leighton; Bob Nelson; total 45.

Port Simpson—C. Henry, 7; S. Spence, 9; G. Wesley, 20; J. McKay, 6; L. Pollard, 4; J. Wesley, 2; D. Ryan; R. Cooper; P. McKay; E. Dennis, 1; total, 49.

Senior Game

The visitors found it difficult to catch on to the style of play of Port Simpson Athletic Club in the senior game as Simpson won 78 to 33. The club boys were shooting them from all angles and soon built up a one-sided score. Excellent combination was displayed by Port Simpson.

The individual scoring:

Metlakatla—A. Prevost, 19; Arnold Leighton, 3; Harold Leighton, 4; Freddie Auckland, 5; Horace Leighton, 2; Bob Nelson; total, 33.

Port Simpson—W. Cooper, 24; George Wesley, 22; M. Ross, 28; V. Wells, 2; G. Green, 2; A. Tait; total, 78.

James Lawson of the Young People's Educational Association refereed both games.

The Metlakatla team was given a warm reception by the Port Simpson Athletic Club and by the people of the village generally.

After the games a dance was givn in honor of the visitors, this being much enjoyed by all who attended. Refreshments were served and speeches given by the officers of the various organizations.

Talk here now is of the possibility of the Savoy basketball team of Prince Rupert coming here for a game with Port Simpson Athletic Club. The Simpson team would also like to journey to Prince Rupert for a return series with Booth Memorial High School.

JOE LOUIS IS WINNER

"What Happened?" Gus Dorazio Wants To Know As Second Round Sees End Of Heavyweight Fight

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18:—"What happened? Is it over? Gee, I didn't know I was hit." So said Gus Dorazio last night as he came to after Joe Louis, world's heavyweight boxing champion, floored him for the count with a straight right to the jaw in the second round. Dorazio held the champion to even terms in the first round and was still boring in at the start of the second. Louis' title was at stake.
