BRITISH TANKS IN MASS REVIEW

Thousands of British tanks are shown here lined up in mass review somewhere in England. The King was on hand to take the salute as this army of armored monsters rattled by in review.

SPORT CHAT

Jack Dunn, owner and manager of Baltimore Orioles in the International League, died from a heart attack at Baltimore 13 years ago yesterday. His club won the pennant seven times in a row from 1919 to 1925—a record that still stands.

Frank Boucher signed to play hockey with Vancouver Maroons of the Pacific Coast League 19 years ago today. Coach of New York Rangers of the N.H.L. now, he went to that club as a player in 1926 and teamed up with the famous Cook brothers, Bun and Bill, to form one of hockey's most outstanding forward lines.

* * *

Lefty Grove, Baltimore pitcher who was rated the best in the International League, failed to last an inning against Kansas City in a Little World Series game at Kansas City 18 years ago this week. He was yanked after walking four men and allowing three runs. He was sold to Philadelphia Athletics of the American League in 1924 for $100,000 and in 1933 was traded to Boston Red Sox for which team he is still playing.

AZTECS DIVINITIES

Although the Aztecs of Mexico believed in only one god they also credit him with having well over two hundred "assistants."

Basketball Buzz

The Aryansh basketball team, coming here to play the local Savoys on Friday and Saturday, are due in the city today. The natives are very confident of victory but no local prognostications are being made until they are seen in action on the practice floor. The local team has two new faces this year which are expected to prove quite a stir this season. One of these is big Don McIver of the High Memorial High School teaching staff who scales 220 pounds and is 6 foot 3½ inches tall. Don plays centre and guard which makes a double threat. The other is Ray Burgess who is no stranger having been a former visitor here with Ocean Falls football and basketball teams. He is only five foot seven inches in heighth but the shortness does not seem to bother him.
