FAIRLANE IS THE NEW STANDARD SIZE FORD!

What is a standard size car? You know about the big cars; you know all about the compacts. You may or may not know that now there is a new standard size carand the leader in this new class of car is the Fairlane. It fits right between the big cars and the compacts. Fairlane is a foot longer than the average compact . . rand a foot shorter than the average big car. Fairlane's wheelbase is 6.1" longer than the average compact—just 3.5 inches shorter than that of a big car. In terms of interior roominess, Fairlane is as large as many big cars of a few short years ago. And it gives you Ford's famous Twice-a-Year Maintenance features that most other cars lack completely! Price? Fairlane actually costs less than some of the compacts. Test drive this new standard size Ford. Get the feel of it. Like most people, you'll probably feel that it's just right for you—in every way.

White wall tires and special wheel covers are optional at extra cost.
