Nelson Bros. Buy Fish as Usual—Notes From Queen Charlotte Islands

Nelson Bros. Fisheries Ltd., their cannery plant site on the ocean dock at Prince Rupert having been taken over in connection with war activities of the port, have established a fishing camp at nearby Port Edward in the former snagboat Bobolink which they brought to the mainland from Massett. In it will be located company office, store and general camp services. The concern will be in the market for all the fish it can obtain and has arranged to have most of its packing done at Cassiar cannery although other plants on the Skeena will also handle Nelson fish.

Capt. Ralph Green called recently with the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. packer Chief Seegay at Skidegate, Shag Rocks and Langara on the Queen Charlotte Islands, picking up fish for delivery to Prince Rupert.

Capt. Helmer Christiansen of Queen Charlotte City recently came into Skidegate from the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands with his third load of springs of the season, selling to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage at Skidegate.

Some of the Skidegate fishermen have been doing quite well at dog fishing. Soup fin sharks have also been caught. The Copper Bay area is full of red salmon.

Axel Nelson, Jim Bacon and Joe Ratchford left yesterday morning aboard the Nelson gasboat G. W. for Muddy Creek, Porcher Island, on an angling expedition. They expect to be away until Thursday.

On Dominion Day, Wednesday, Post Office wickets will be open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The lobby will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Freedom's Value Sermon Subject

Army Padre Take Services at First United Church Sunday

Services at the First United Church Sunday were conducted yesterday by Rev. (Captain) Stewart of the Midland Regiment in the absence of Rev. J. A. Donnell who is in Vancouver.

Taking as his text the statement that Christ came to bring deliverance, Captain Stewart spoke of the value of freedom. Recounting from experience when he used to visit in an official capacity prisons in England and Wales and later in the United States and Canada, he told of the tragedy of limitations. Wealth, health, luxury could not make up for the lack of freedom. But there was another imprisonment even worse than physical imprisonment. That was the one of spiritual imprisonment. In many ways men cruelly imprisons his fellowmen by malicious, spiteful criticisms. The released prisoner is often even more punished by his fellow citizens after his restoration to freedom. And in the spiritual world man is a prisoner when he is under the fetters of sin. Release from these fetters has been brought by Christ. If man would but admit and acknowledge his sin he would, by the mystery of the mercy of God, be set free.

Special music was rendered by a quartette consisting of Mrs. Tommy Fraser, Mrs. Thomas Dixon and D. R. Barclay and M. Dandel in a special setting of "The Prayer Perfect."
