Send Your Copy Early

Local news contributions should be in the Daily News office by 10 a.m. on the day following the event—preferably the night before, a letterbox in the door being there to receive copy. Local news not in by 10 a.m. runs the risk of not being published. We prefer to have news contributions typewritten neatly and double spaced, if possible. However, legible writing will do.

Union Head Heard Here

Local Woodworkers Addressed By William Page, Carpenters' Representative From Calgary

There was a large turn-out of local woodworkers on Sunday to hear an address by William Page of Calgary, western Canadian head office representative of the Carpenters' Union of the American Federation of Labor. Opportunity was taken by those present to discuss the present and future prospects of the trade.

C. Harris, vice-president of the local Union, was in the chair in the absence of President S. A. Bird and J. S. Black acted as secretary.

Approved

Pictured above is a smart Canadian-made print frock approved by the clothing administrators of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. This dress was formerly made with a sheer coat in matching print pattern. By prohibiting the coat more than three yards of material has been saved.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

The Naas River area was opened for seining on Sunday night but catches have so far been light. Some of the seineboats are getting out in readiness for the run of pinks which has not started to show up to any extent as yet. Meanwhile there is little change in the gillnetting situation, the general average for the Skeena being about thirty fish per boat per day. In outside Naas River waters the average is about thirty fish and inside about forty-five.
