REDS ON ADVANCE

Soviet Forces Pushing Into Staraya Russa, Stalino and Taganrog.

MOSCOW, March 26: — Soviet troops, approaching Staraya Russa, are now within sight of that city and are in the streets of Stalino as well as being in the suburbs of Taganrog.

Heavy tank units pushed into Stalino followed by guerillas who picked up arms which had been concealed there and went into action against the German garrison.

The Reds continue to take heavy toll of the Nazis in casualties.

DEAD FROM STARVATION

Body of John Sogering Found In Cabin on Stewart-Telegraph Creek Trail

The body of John Sogering, who left Stewart last June by the overland trail for Telergaph Creek, has been found in a cabin at Quinn Lake, 125 miles south of Telegraph Creek, the provincial police here have been advised. He is believed to have starved to death about last September.

Sogering, who was of Finnish origin and fifty-two years of age, had come from the Old Country to the United States in 1907 and came north from California early last year. Evidently he had travelled about extensively. He had been checked up on as an alien at Stewart last year.

Roy Quock, an Indian, had reported to the provincial police at Telegraph Creek the finding of the body in the cabin at Quinn Lake. Constable G. Davis proceeded to the scene by dog team and took charge of the body which he identified and interred at the spot.

NOT BEING COMPELLED

OTTAWA, March 26:—There is nothing in the new manpower program which has been introduced in Canada to compel men to transfer from non-essential to essential industries providing they are unfit for military service or outside of the age limits. However, suggestions will be made whereby services might be more profitably put to use in the war effort.

Assistant Attorney General Tells How United States Company Turned Over Synthetic Rubber Process

WASHINGTON, March 26: (AP)—Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general, testified today that the Standard oil Co. of New Jersey had developed synthetic rubber cheaper, better and more plentiful than any the Nazis had and turned it over to German interests before United States entered the war.

Constable Stuart McKim, who is leaving the provincial police to rejoin the Rocky Mountain Rangers as a sergeant, is sailing tonight on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.
