SMITHERS TEAM HERE

All Set for Basketball Series Tonight and Saturday.

Smithers men's and girls' basketball teams arrived last night to play a series of games with local teams tonight and Saturday. The Smithers teams consist of the following:

Men's—W. Watson (guard), K. Warner (utility), L. Evitt (guard), N. Kilpatrick (forward), P. Mayer (forward), R. Cunliffe (centre), B. Dunlop (forward).

Girls—W. Watson, D. Evans, M. Fowler, H. Peterson, R. Macdonald, P. Hann.

Here is a brief summary of the dry dock players:

A. Bill—Star player of the High School teams who will be playing at guard. Bill is considered one of the best in the intermediate league this year.

Don Fitch—Former university player will be at centre. Fitch has been handicapped in latter years by a sprained back and was out of circles for a while but is now dry dock's best.

Stan Scherk—Also plays guard. Is another High School star.

D. Montesano—Utility guard, also a former player of the Scythians will be at guard.

Bob Vuckovich—Plays centre for dry dock; resigned from High School for dry dock. Bob is playing on first string and is an accurate shot.

Nick Pavlikis—Left forward for the Dry Dock; is fast and accurate shot from the sides.

Jim Sheddon — Right forward, smallest on the team; is also on first string and is a hard man to check.

Sev Dominato—Well known Savoy player, is the main coach for the Dry Dock squad.

SPORT CHAT

Fred Matieshin, 22-year old Quebec miner, was taken to hospital after being knocked out in Toronto's "white hope" boxing tournament six years ago last night. He died in hospital three days later. The Jack Dempsey-sponsored show failed to unearth a serious challenger for Joe Louis' crown.

Phil Scott, British heavyweight boxing champion, held a "boxing tea" for 400 debutantes and socially prominents in a fashionable Palm Beach club 12 years ago today. "Phainting Phil" met Jack Sharkey five days later and lost on a technical knockout.
