Among the donated articles at the Red Cross tea held this week at the home of Mrs. L. W. Kergin were found dainty hand made aprons from Miss E. Gandy which were sold instead of raffled. They evinced much favorable comment, attracting a great deal of attention from the ladies present.

Mrs. W. Stone of Merritt arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon to pay a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robertson. Mrs. Stone is the cousin of Mrs. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Vance sailed last night on the Princess Adelaide for a vacation trip to Vancouver. Mr. Vance will be relieved as police magistrate by T. W. Brown.

The Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its monthly meeting last night, reappointed Bruce Stevens as regional representative to the Junior Chambers of Commerce organization of British Columbia representing Prince Rupert and Prince George.

The recent dinner dance of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce showed a deficit of $22.65, it was reported at the monthly meeting of the junior section last night. The affair was, nevertheless, very enjoyable from a social standpoint and a vote of thanks was tendered to the committee in charge consisting of Robert Parker, Colin McCarthy and Ted Smith.

A communication from the mayor of Windsor, Ontario, in regard to the annual conference of the Junior Chambers of Commerce of Canada to be held June 25-27 at Windsor, Ontario, was read and filed at the regular monthly meeting of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night. Correspondence from the National Tourist Association was also filed.

Mrs. Cyril Nixon and child sailed last night on the Princess Adelaide for Vancouver. They expect to spend some time in the south.

The regular monthly dinner meeting of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was held last night. President Alf. Rivett was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members with guests in the persons of Rev. A. F. MacSween, Arthur Bromley, Douglas Wood, James Schreifels and Donald McLachlan. Business was of a fairly inconsequential character. Regular monthly meetings of the Junior Chamber are now suspended for the summer and will be resumed in the fall.

Bishop G. A. Rix will sail on the Camosun tonight for Massett on ecclesiastical duties.

A letter from Arthur Brooksbank, secretary of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, in regard to the issue as to the future form of civic government was presented at the meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce last night but no action was taken. The Junior Chamber has a committee consisting of L. M. Felsenthal working on the subject.
