Hazards of Skeena recalled on program

Additional information on the weekly series called "Living Memory" has been received by Canadian Broadcasting Corporation radio station CFPR, it was reported today by Peter Ford, station producer.

noted in corps

"Substantial improvement"

Lt.-Cmdr. Bowditch was ac-

The Executive Officer, Sub-

first-year cadets who comprised spection. The Sea Cadets annual minutes at 10:15 p.m. every Friday for the last four weeks, have improvement recounted reminiscences of early pioneer days of some of the earliest settlers in this area.

Tomorrow night, the program will feature events in the lives of was noted by Sea Cadet Area Ofresidents of Port Essington as ficer Lt.-Cmdr. William Bowtold by Arthur Morrow, Mrs. ditch, CD, RCN, during his semi-Vicky Simms, (nee Morison), annual inspection of Capt. Cook's Mrs. Veroca Godfrey (daughter Sea Cadet Corps last night at of Capt. Bonser of riverboat HMCS Chatham drill hall. fame), Mr. Harris, Capt. Don companied on his inspection by

Peck and Walter Wicks. On March 2, the chapter en- the Sea Cadets Commanding Officer, Lt. Eric Barton. "Skeena River Travel" describes a trip upriver to Hazelton by Indian canoe and |Lt. Charles Lindstrom was in sternwheeler as told by Mrs. | charge of the parade and PO H. F. Glassey of Prince Ru- Allan Miller was in charge of pert and Mrs. Simms and Mrs. | the guard of nine cadets. The 16

Godfrey of Vancouver. On March 16, some details per- the Rear Division were in charge by Mrs. Moberly of Cedarvale mough. will include an eye witness ac- of Sub.-Lt. Leonard Youngman, Bell and Laurie Gordon. count of the wreck of the Mount | Supply Officer, were also in-Royal and also a story by Wiggs spected. O'Neill about the Queen of the Lt. - Cmdr. Bowditch said that Kitselas, experiences which took he had noticed an improvement place during railway construc- in the cadets since his last intion days.

The following programs will inspection will be in June. deal with the Indian mission at Cedarvale.

The series is prepared by Robert Orchard and is produced in the Vancouver studios of the CBC. It is heard on the Trans-Canada network.

B.C. residents receive awards

A 10-year-old Wolf Cub from Trail and two British Columbia leaders have won high awards! from the Boy Scouts of Canada in an honors list released today in Ottawa by Governor - General Georges Vanier, Chief Scout for Canada.

The list, which marks the birthday (February 22) of the founder of the Scout movement. Lord Robert Baden - Powell of Gilwell, includes seven others: from B.C.

Awarded the Gilt Cross for gallantry with moderate risk is James Kelly, 10, of Trail, who swam out into Christina Lake and pushed an air mattress to a 23-year-old man who suffered a cramp while swimming. Kelly then towed the man to shore.

The Silver Acorn for specially distinguished services to Scouting is awarded to: Victor Wiebe of Burnaby, assistant provincial: commissioner of the B.C.-Yukon; Provincial Council; and Harold; L. Steves of Richmond, District in Commissioner for Richmond District.

The Medals or Merit for Good: Services to Scouting are awarded to Harold Hagreen of Surrey, district commissioner of the East Whalley District; George Grange: of Vancouver, honorary president of the Carleton District Council; Gustav A. Lund of Prince George, chairman of the group committees of the 2nd Fort George District; Mrs. Gloria Bingham of Surrey, Cubmaster of the 1st Cloverdale Pack; and Arthur Houghton of Vancouver, chairman of the Carleton District badge committee.

tunds not

An organization called the Christian Record Benevolent Association, Inc. which has been soliciting funds for the blind, is In no way affiliated with the Canadian National Institute for a the Blind, It was learned today in a letter from M. C. Robinson, CNIB director for western Canndn, The CNIB states that it is the only agency which is officially recognized by the provincial and federal governments.

The letter states that the association had been sending letters of appeal to Boards of Trade. Chambers of Commerce and oth- { er, organizations throughout the province, stating that the funds would go to aid the blind.

PAGODA Drive-In SPECIAL EVERY WEEK 3 VARIETIES 1.75 Phono 4226

SCOUT FLAGS, HATS AND EQUIPMENT are on display at downtown stores during Boy Scout Week. This window in Fashion Footwear was decorated by the 5th Prince Rupert Scout Troop and Cub Pack of the Church of the Annunciation. Activities this week include the Boy Scout Show at the Booth Memorial Junior High School at 7 p.m. Friday night. Skits, songs and a demonstration of tent raising and first aid will be on the program to provide fun for all and to display some of the things learned in Scouting. Scout Week will end with Church parades on (Staff photo by Phylis Bowman)

Scouts guests at Kiwanis Club dinner

Honored guests at the Kiwanis the gathering of the training ning was L. G. Truscott, prin- All Legion and Legion Auxall obstacles to sternwheelers. Piping the inspection party Club dinner last night at the they had received in Scouting cipal of the Prince Rupert Senior liliary members under 70 years the Kitselas Canyon, will be told aboard was PO Frederick Wat- Broadway Cafe were District Boy and that they were looking for- High School. Mr. Truscott spoke of age are eligible to join the Scout Commissioner W. D. Suth-ward to their trip to Victoria at of the benefits and problems of Dominion-wide Legion Group and Mrs. Godfrey. This chapter The stores under the custody erland and Queen Scouts David Easter when they would be pre- the local schools and told how Insurance Plan. Rates are exsented their Queen Scout cer- parents could help the students aminations are necessary. Ap-Introduced by the commission-tificates by Lieutenant - Gover-with their studies. er, who also spoke briefly on nor George Pearkes.

"Scout Week," the two boys told The main speaker of the eve- Kiwanis President E. D. Manson. Office.

Advertising in The Daily News Brings Results

PORT SIMPSON WEEK

phone installed

By TOM WHITE Daily News Correspondent

PORT SIMPSON - A Frequency Modulator telephone has been installed at Clausen and |Sons store at Port Simpson. Elmer Clausen, skipper of the vessel Colnet, was in Prince Rupert recently on a business trip.

Many people attended the Valentine dance sponsored by the Ladies Aid of the Young People's Educational Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Samson went to Prince Rupert for a short, visit on a North Coast Airlines plane piloted by Jack Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Samson and Mrs. Ronald Mather have returned from Prince Rupert by February 21 was the date set for a public meeting at which the Port Simpson Council committee would report on the coming elections. A vote will be held Friday to elect three councillors and a new chief.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

plication forms and information, The speakers were thanked by may be obtained at the Legion

> • Sons of Norway whist and dance Friday night. February 23. Whist at 8 o'clock Everybody

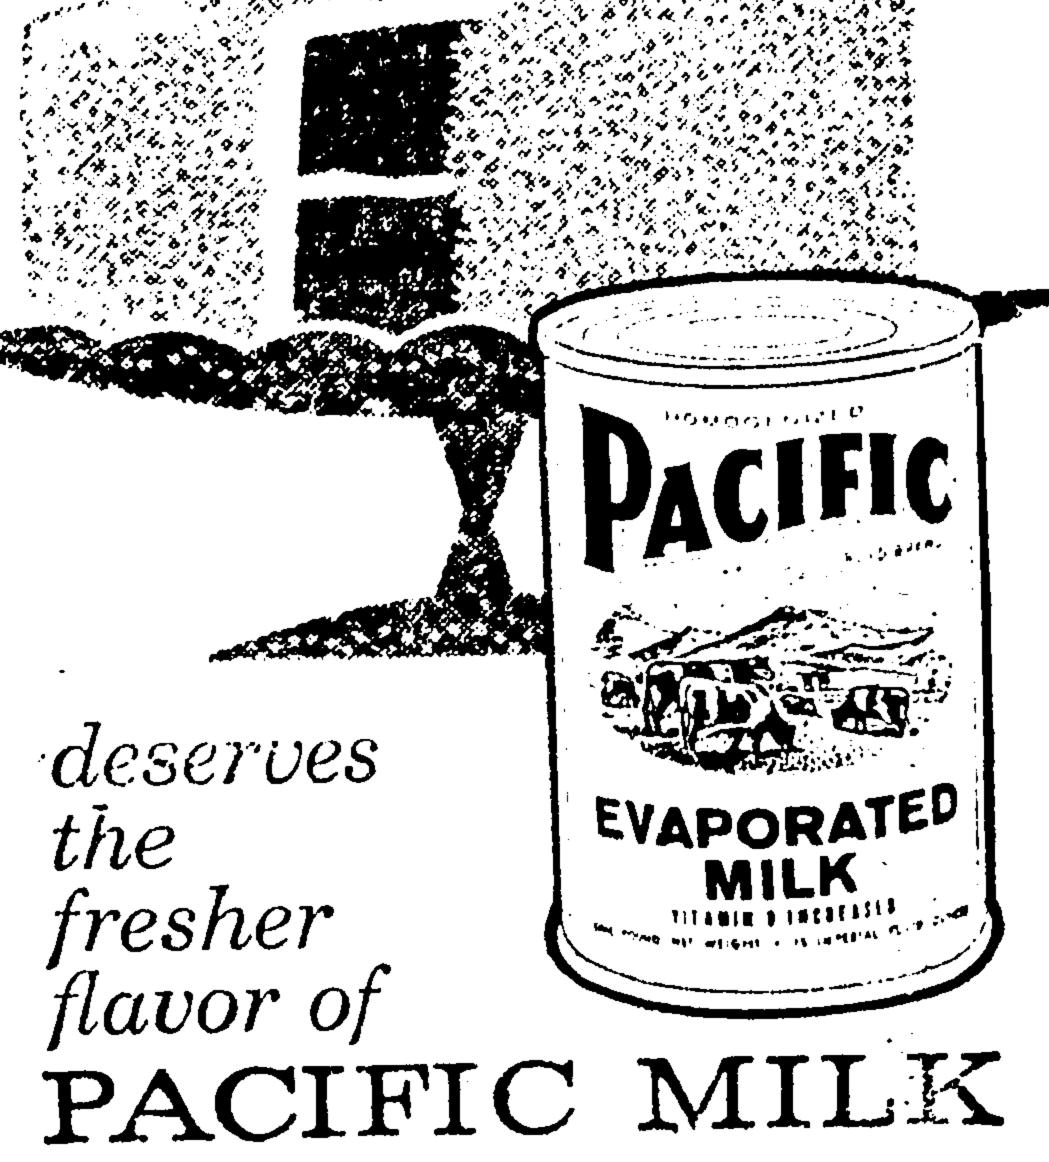

MONTREAL (P) --- One of the most discussed painters in Mont-|real is a nun, Sister Marie Anas- | of women's institutes was at Antasia, who teaches art at the twerp, Belgium, in 1930. College Basile Moreau. A graduate of l'Ecole des Beaux Arts, she has exhibited some abstracts and

'and engraving.

INTERNATIONAL MEET First international conference

GREAT ARTIST Nicolo Paganini, the famous is also interested in sculpture Italian concert violinist, was 51 at his death in 1840.

THE ONLY EVAPORATED MILK PROCESSED IN B.C.

FAIRLANE IS FOR FUN!

Drive it! . . . Park it! . . . Price it! ... You'll want it! Fairlane's fullsize interior offers stretch-out room for six adults. The trunk is a whopper! Posture-perfect seats, luxuriously upholstered in longwearing fabrics, are the last word in comfort. And Fairlane's optional power brakes and power steering offer even more driving convenience. Get more fun out of driving with Fairlane's twice-a-year maintenance features.

FAIRLANE IS FOR FEATURES!

All the features you want! A great choice of engines: the powerful Fairlane Six, or one of Fairlane's two optional V-8's—the thrifty Challenger V-8 or the powerful Challenger 260 V-8. Single-unit construction, coupled with new Torque Boxes built into each corner of the passenger compartment, soak up road noise and vibrations for a whisper quiet ride.

FAIRLANE IS FOR YOU!

You'll like its Thunderbird-inspired roofline—good, clean styling. You'll like the solid feel of it. And you'll like Fairlane's low price. Compare it right down the line and you'll know for a fact that Fairlane

FORD AIRLANE eye it! try it! buy it! TAKE A TEST DRIVE THIS WEEK!

Visit your Ford Dealer and take the ~62 Ford Fairlanc out on the road. Put it through its paces and you'll discover what makes this car pertorm with such excellence. Learn why the '62 Ford Fairland is for you. Ford Dealers give a 12-month or 12,000 mile warranty, whichever comes first.

to langity are traval leady but the University

THE PLANT OF THE PARTY OF THE P

SEE YOUR (Zunn) DEALER

PARKER'S

2nd Avc. and McBrido