In National League field for 1942, John R. Mize, New York, leads the first basemen with a percentage of .995. Nicholas J. Witek, New York, heads the second basemen, with .978. Stanley C. Hack, Chicago, is the leader among the third basemen, with .955. Edward R. Miller, Boston, for the third consecutive years tops shortstops with .983, a new league record surpassing the mark of .978 held by James Cooney, Chicago-Philadelphia made in 1927. Daniel W. Litwhiler, Philadelphia, by going through the 1942 season without making an error in 151 games, established an all-time record with a perfect average, accepting 317 chances. Arnold M. Owens, Brooklyn, leads the catchers with .987. Ray LaMann, Cincinnati, had the most passed balls, 11. Twenty-two pitchers fielded for a 1000, the leadership going to Claude W. Passeau, with 73 chances. William F. Jurges, New York, with 11 fielding innings without a chance tied record held by many players, September 22 against Brooklyn.

Leonard R. Merullo, Chicago, making 4 errors in 2nd inning of second game September 13 against Boston, established new league record, former record held by three National League shortstops who had 3.

As for club fielding features, New York, led in fielding percentage, with .9772. Cincinnati made most double plays, 158, and had most putouts, 4237. Boston made most passed balls, 14. St. Louis had most men left on bases, 1218. Chicago had most assists, 1874 and most total chances, 6246. Philadelphia committed most errors, 194. By fielding .973, the league tied their high mark made in 1933, and committing but 1312 errors for a new low, replaced old record of 1349 made in 1933.

GET EXTRA VALUE FROM YOUR COUPONS WITH THIS RICHER, MORE SATISFYING TEA
DESPITE RATIONING, you can still enjoy a good cup of tea —and get more cups per coupon— if you use Lipton's "small leaf" Tea. For Lipton's is a master blend which includes select teas grown exclusively in Lipton's own gardens in Ceylon. That is one of the reasons why Lipton's is so uniformly rich and full-flavoured, goes farther and makes every cup more satisfying.

From now on use Lipton's full-flavoured "small leaf" tea. An Empire Tea that's "fit for a king".

A thrilling NEW WORLD INVITES YOU
Imagine yourself proudly attired in trim Air Force Blue. You enter a great, new, wonderful world of adventure.
Join the R.C.A.F. now. You'll spend a few weeks in training near Ottawa or Toronto. Then you'll get right into action . . . it may be in Nova Scotia or Saskatchewan; Newfoundland or British Columbia. Later, possibly, you may go overseas.
There are 40 different trades you may enter in the R.C.A.F. Perhaps you'll drive a tractor, or, if you love to cook, you'll enjoy preparing meals for husky young airmen. Perhaps you'll be a stenographer, a fabric worker or a wireless operator. Perhaps you'll fold parachutes or run a teletype machine.
Whatever your task, you will be sharing in the great work of the R.C.A.F., just as surely as though you were sitting at the controls of a Spitfire, or manning a machine gun, or looking through the bomb sights.
The R.C.A.F. needs girls, ages 18 to 40, with at least High School Entrance. Apply at your nearest R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centre, bringing proof of education and birth certificate. NO WAITING! EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR PROMOTION.
Girls Needed at Once for These and Many Other Duties
Clerks . . . Book-keepers . . . Stenographers . . . Fabric Workers . . . Cooks . . . Transport Drivers . . . . Join now—that men may fly!

Send for this free booklet. It gives the complete story of the life of airwomen in the R.C.A.F. Write to Director of Manning, R.C.A.F., Jackson Building, Ottawa, or the nearest Recruiting Centre listed below.
