New Candidates At Moose Chapter

Women of the Moose, Chapter 211, held its regular meeting in the Oddfellows Hall on Wednesday evening and initiated another class of candidates. The steady growth of the chapter, through the efforts of the senior regent and members, is most gratifying and encouraging and helps to accomplish the great work the organisation stands for.

The chapter presented to its senior regent, Mrs. Margaret Tolin, in a few well-chosen words, on behalf of her tireless efforts, a framed motto: "The Pilgrim Governors Pledge to Childhood."

A pleasant social evening was brought to a close with the members serving refreshments, after several contests had been held. Winners are as follows: Mrs. A. Tattersall and Mrs. F. Grimble on a cut with Mrs. A. Moller.
