STORE RENOVATIONS — Work on proposed renovations to The Universal store at the intersect. cn of Third Avenue West and Sixth Street is in full swing. Store Manager D. H. Payne said the work started about January 15 and is expected to be completed about April 1. He said it will cost more than $12,000 and will increase the size of the store from about 3,000 square feet nore than 4,500 square feet. The new part of the store will carry mostly electrical merchandisc, he said. The renovations forced Ling the Tailor and Athens Shoes & Repairs to move. Ling the Tailor will re-open on the location of the former Sports Shop while Athens Shoes - Staff photo by Gary Oakes has moved across the street.

FEDERATION OF LABOR URGES SUPPORT OF PEACE INSTITUTE

Labor (CLC) announced today it is urging all its affiliates to support the Canadian Peace Research Institute. The affiliates of the 120,000-member federation would be asked "to render all possible assistance to this constructive and worthwhile effort to promote peace."

Dr. Norman Z. Alcock of Toronto, founder of the institute, said in Victoria Friday night the institute would "apply scientific disciplines to seeking out the alternatives to war." "The hydrogen bomb has made war obsolete --- the last resort utterly incompatible with our society."
