Introduction being sought in the schools, a copy of a new Canadian patriotic song entitled "Hail Canada" and written by Rev. J. Henry King was placed before the board of school trustees at last night's meeting. It was filed.

Mention was made at last night's meeting of the board of school trustees of a recent scourge of rats at the domestic science department of Booth Memorial High School. This was reported to have been alleviated lately. The proximity of Wartime Housing staff house establishments was held accountable.

Bernard Allen, manager of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock, was an interesting speaker today at the weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club. President G. C. Mitchell was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members with a few guests.

There were applications before the board of school trustees at its meeting last night for positions on the teaching staffs here. Miss Hilda M. Nuttall of Westview, Powell River, sought appointment as music specialist. Miss Lillian Helgerson applied for appointment to the general teaching staff. Mrs. Keith Taylor offered her services as a substitute teacher.

Tenders for janitors' supplies for schools for the coming year were opened at the meeting of the board of school trustees last night and referred to the secretary for tabulation. There were tenders from Thompson Hardware and Dustbane Products of Vancouver. Trustees C. G. Ham and E. J. Smith were delegated to assist the secretary in connection with the arrangement of purchases for the coming year, the necessity of obtaining which as soon as possible owing to shrinking supplies was emphasized. This committee will also take up the question of purchasing and storing fuel for the coming winter.

Miss Margaret Talberg is leaving tonight for a trip to Vancouver.

Miss Leah Basso-Bert is leaving tonight for a trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter and son, Peter, are leaving tonight for a holiday trip to Vancouver.

Miss Florence Johnston is leaving tonight for a trip to Vancouver.

Tonight's train, due to arrive from the East at 7 o'clock, was reported this morning to be three hours and forty minutes late.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. R. Anderson will sail tonight for a three weeks' holiday trip to Vancouver.

Having left the city yesterday afternoon for a two weeks' inspection trip to interior points, School Inspector B. Thorsteinssen was not in attendance at last night's meeting of the board of school trustees. A special meeting would be arranged, if necessary, with Mr. Thorsteinssen, it was decided.

There was a communication at last night's meeting of the school trustees relating to the possible use of Booth Memorial School for military purposes. The Civilian Protection Committee (A. R. P.) holds permission to use quarters in the schools for instruction purposes and as headquarters for patrols.

Stating that everything pointed to an increasing shortage of teachers, Harry Charlesworth, general secretary of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, had a letter before the board of school trustees at its meeting last night urging use of the columns of the publication "B. C. Teachers" in calling for applications for teachers. Principals of the schools will be asked to advise the board as soon as possible when teachers are known definitely to be leaving.

Chairman Jack Deane or Trustee C. G. Ham were delegated at the meeting of the board of school trustees to present without further delay to Miss Dorothy O'Neill of Borden Street School a check from the Strathcona Trust Fund for proficiency in physical training instruction. The prize was won last year by Miss O'Neill's class and the check has been on hand for some time awaiting formal presentation.

Closing Out

We regret to announce that owing to circumstances we will be closing up our business on May 31.
