SATURDAY SERMON

SALVATION IS FREE

By J. T. GILLINGHAM, Brigadier,
Divisional Commander Salvation Army for Northern B.C.

"Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth."
—Isaiah 45:22.

It cost someone a great deal. That is why Salvation is free, to all.

Generally the great things of life are obtainable by much effort. Education, position, wealth and many other things rarely come easily. We have to work hard to obtain them and, even then, many fail in the attemtp. With the great things of God, however, it is somewhat different. The words used to seekers, speak of simple things to do, ask, forsake, believe, confess, seek and in our text the word used is "Look." These are simple things to do, possibly, but they produce great results in the lives of sincere seekers.

We have first in our text an 'Encouraging exhortation.' "Be ye Saved." This is the Prophet Isiiah call to his people to seek the Salvation of God. Although these words were spoken many years before the coming of Christ, His mission was made plain to the Prophet. "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" and again "I came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance." In that mission we must all be included for "All have sinned and come short of the Glory of God." Sin brings with it a penalty, it pays wages. "The wages of sin is death" but God in His great love has made a way out for us. He has provided a remedy and we have it recorded "The Gift of God is Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

The next thought of our text is 'The way of Salvation.' "Look unto Me."

I say, a simple thing to do, but here we are shown it is the way of escape from the "Serpent bite of Sin' for, "as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wildernss, even so must the son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

The late Dr. Campbell Morgan told the following story: "A coal miner came to me at the close of one of my sermons and said: 'I would like to be a Christian but I cannot accept what you said tonight.' I asked 'why not' and he replied: 'I would give anything to be able to believe that God would forgive my sins but I cannot believe that He will forgive them if I just turn to Him. That is too cheap.' I looked at him and said 'my dear friend, have you been working in the mine today?' Rather astonished by my question he replied, 'yes, I was down in the mine as usual.' 'How did you get out of the mine?' I asked him. 'Why the way I always do, I got into the cage and was pulled to the top.' 'How much did it cost you to be pulled up?' I asked. 'Why, I didn't pay anything to come out of the mine,' he said amazed at my ignorance. 'Were you not afraid to trust yourself to the cage, was it not too cheap?' I asked, 'if they did not make a charge.' 'Oh, no,' he cried, 'it was cheap for me, but it cost the company a lot of money to sink that shaft and build that cage.'"

The doctor says without another word the truth of that admission broke in upon him. He saw he could have Salvation "without money and without price" but it cost the infinate God a great price to sink that shaft and rescue lost men.

In conclusion we are not left in the dark as to whom the message is given, for it says, "All the ends of the earth." The Prophet in his vision sees a Gospel being proclaimed to all the world and cries "All the ends of the earth shall see the Salvation of our God."

The picture is that of a lost world without God and without hope, a hill, a Cross, a Savour lifted up and to all today as in the past comes the Message: "Look unto Me and be ye saved." Christ is the only hope of our world today.

SHOWER FOR MRS. BLEAKLEY

British War Bride is Honored At Home of Mrs. Andrews

The home of Mrs. J. Andrews was the scene of a lovely shower given in honor of Mrs. A. R. Bleakley, a British war bride who just arrived in Canada from England on the last trip of the "Aquitania". The house was gaily decorated with white streamers. Mrs. Bleakley was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. Among the guests were Mrs. T. Boulter, Mrs. J. Andrews, Mrs. A. Bleakley, Mrs. Phylis Bury, Mrs. Cis Barry, Mrs. J. Beaudry, Mrs. M. MacDonald, Mrs. R. Falardau, Mrs. E. Martinson, Mrs. Jeanne Warren, Mrs. A. Denton, Mrs. S. Smith, Mrs. Humphreys, Mrs. E. Clark, Miss Pat Stewart, Mrs. Mary Ross.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I separate a water glass when it becomes stuck in another?

A. Pour cold water in the upper one to contract it, and then immerse the lower one in warm water to expand it. They can then be easily separated.

Q. How can the skins from beets be removed very readily?

A. Place the beets in hot water for a short time, drain off the hot water and immediately fill the vessel with cold water.

Q. How can the shiny parts of a garment be removed?

A. Sponge it with a solution of one teaspoon of ammonia to one quart of water. Then press on the wrong side.

Diamond dust saved from cutting is used for fine polishing.

BUSY SIGNALLERS

NEW DELHI (AP) — Beginning six years ago with only one wireless set operated by four men, India's Signal Headquarters has developed into an organization dealing with more than 250,000 words a day. During the last 29 months of the war, this unit handled over 215,000,000 words in 3,500,000 messages, about one-tenth of which were in cipher.
