Cards Overcome Dodgers 4 - 2 In First Pre-Series Playoff

ST. LOUIS—St. Louis Cardinals overcame the Brooklyn Dodgers Tuesday 4-2 in the first game of their best two-out-of-three play-off for National League Pennant and the right to meet Boston Red Sox in World Series.

First score of the game came in the first inning when Moore scored for St. Louis. Moore got from first to third on Slaughter's single and reached home when Garagiola beat out an infield hit.

Dodgers got started in the third inning when Schultz hit the first pitch for a homer. In the St. Louis half of the third Cardinals collected two runs and Kirby Higby took over Brooklyn pitching job, Ralph Brance retiring.

Howie Pollett, St. Louis twirler, remained in the game throughout and was not often in difficulty.

Fourth Cardinal score came in the seventh after Reese singled and was advanced by hits made by Edwards and Schultz.
