SHORT SPORT

First tournament of the season on the Canadian National Railways' Recreation Association Tennis Club courts, on which informal play has been active since early spring under the ideal weather conditions, is booked for the coming Sunday. It will be an American mixed doubles' tourney on the turnout at which will be based the forthcoming annual club trophy tournament.

As a result of an injury when sliding into base Sunday Joe DiMaggio will be out of the game for a week at least. It is hoped that the injury to his knee will not aggragate an old injury received when he played on the Pacific Coast. While Joe has not been hitting as of oid yet he does still lead in the number of runs batted in and any lengthy absence from the line-up will be a serious handicap to his team.

Hal Newhouser marked up his sixteenth victory of the season Sunday.

Hank Greenberg scored his twenty-second home run of the season Sunday in addition to one other hit.

In the national clay court tennis championships on Sunday Frankie Parker won over W. Talbert by 6-4, 6-4, 6-2. In the whole competition Parker has not lost a set.

In the middle states professional tennis championship Don Budge won the finals. His blistering backhand was a potent factor all through the series.

General Motors Win From Grotto While 99 Taxi Swamps Reserves Squad

In the first of the two fastball league games last evening at Gyro Ball Park, 99 Taxi team overwhelmed the Reserve by 20 to 0. In the second game the powerful General Motors hit on all cylindrs to defeat the Grotto nine by 8 to 1.

The Reserve never gave up but they just had not the talent. Pallister pitched a good game but fielding errors and inexperience gave him no support. The worst innings were the fourth and fifth. In the fourth the entire 99 team batted around while Dominato scored twice, the second being an unearned home run. Four players scored three runs each, these being Dominato, Montesano, Calderoni and Ratchford. Glen Smith, Gurvich and Wendle scored twice each while Postuk and Houston scored once each.

Pallester and Warren were the battery for the Army men. Pallister struck out two. Boyo Gurvich pitched for the taxi men and was never in trouble. Sonny Beynon relieved him in the last two innings and showed lots of speed. Each struck out one. Postuk was a good catcher.

Teams:

Reserve — Pallister, Warren, Basso, Sunberg, Watmough, Kurlok, Helgerson, Mostad and Barraclough.

99 Taxi — Postuk, Dominato, Houston, Wendle, G. Smith, Gurvich, Montesano, Calderoni, Beynon and Ratchford.

Scores:

Reserve	000 00— 0
99 Taxi	230 37—20

General Motors Win Over Tobacconists

The General Motors vs. Grotto contest provided some good ball but the motor men always had matters under control. Moxley struck out four players but he walked seven and was often in trouble. He walked the first two players to face him and each of these scored later. He set the opposition down in the second, third and fourth innings with only two men getting on base. Two more runs were added in the fifth and then in the sixth he walked three and two of these later came in to score. Olsen scored in the seventh when the catcher let the last pitched ball get away from him.

Bruce Simonson scored the only run for the Grotto. Dell got on base three times and Kerr got on twice but Bill and Duncan were the only other runners to get on the paths. Carl Smith came on when Duncan had to leave and played well. Duncan caught a good game while Dell looked very smart at first.

Parlett and Pavlikis were the battery for the General Motors and Moxley and Duncan f r the Grotto. Kerr took Duncan's place behind the bat when the latter had to leave.

Teams:

General Motors — T. Arney, Minor Simonson, J. Davis, Lindsay, Pavlikis, Fitch, Lester, Glen Olsen, Parlett.

Grotto — Kerr, B. Simonson, Moxley, Dell, Bill, F. Gomez, M. Holkestad, Duncan, Laid, C. Smith.

Scores:

General Motors	300 022 1—8
Grotto	100 000 0—1
