LOG SCALE IS LOWER

But More Timber Products Put Out in This Area

Log scale in Prince Rupert forestry district for August this year amounted to 20,493,112 board feet compared with 22,974,406 board feet in the same month last year.

Total for the first eight months of this year, 90,033,849 board feet, is about 34,000,000 board feet less than for the same period in 1945, when it stood at 124,659,564 board feet.

However, pole and piling production for August was considerably greater than for the same month last year, 1,480,340 lineal feet as against 885,374 in August 1945 and the eight month total this year stands at 3,632,921 lineal feet, while for the same period last year it was 1,444,784.

There were 2,060 ties cut in the Prince Rupert forestry district last month, and 393 cords of fuel wood.

Sawlog production by varieties was as follows:

Fir, 725,347; cedar, 2,335,535; spruce, 10,028,644; hemlock, 5,051,818; balsam, 1,171,576; jackpine, 901,439; miscellaneous, 278,753.

More than 100,000 new products have appeared on the American market since 1900.

MOSLEM LEAGUE REJECTS BRITISH FREEDOM PLAN—Mahomed Ali Jinnah, leader of the All-India Moslem league, is shown in conference with the league secretary. Nawabazada Liaquatali Khan, at a party rally in Bombay recently. In his address to the council, Ali Jinnah urged members to reverse the league's Delhi decision of accepting the British cabinet mission plan for India's freedom and to frame a path of independent "direct action." Members were called upon to relinquish all titles they held from the British government.

BUILDING IS HIGHER

Value of building construction in Prince Rupert in August was $9,915, the two major items being a $2,000 shed for Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co., and a service station for A. W. Bellamy and A. K. Tweed of McBride Street, with a value of $1,800.

Value of construction here so far this year is about $36,000 greater than in the first eight months of 1945, in spite of difficulties experienced during the summer months in getting nails and other building materials. Permits issued so far this year total $208,405 in value, as compared with the eight-month total of $172,122 in 1945.

Here is the list of building permits granted last month in Prince Rupert.
