LATEST REPORT FROM NOME OF THE GREAT DOG TEAM RACE

JOHNSON AND DELZENE STRUGGLING TO BE FIRST AT CANDLE
—SCOTTY MAKING HUNDRED AND TWENTY MILE DASH.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Nome, April 12.—Yesterday afternoon the Alaska Derby dog team races developed into a contest between Johnson and Delzene as to which team would be the first at the turning point, Candle, which is 206 miles from the starting place at Nome. Johnson's dogs, worn down by steady driving, had to slacken the pace, while Delzene's were refreshed by a rest at Haven and are rapidly making up the time gained by Johnson during the early morning by pressing his leaders hard. Scotty Allen rested at Gold Run and will try to make a sixty mile drive to Candle and to return to Gold Run without stopping. His dogs have been carefully handled and are reported as being as fresh as at the start.

ITALY IN NAVAL RACE

To Spend $60,000,000 on Additions to Her Fleet

Rome, April 10.—The Chamber of Deputies will resume its session on April 11. The Minister of Marine will present a project for the construction of three super-dreadnoughts, three battleships, four cruisers, and a squadron of torpedo boats. The cost of this addition to the navy is estimated at $60,000,000.

POST OFFICE SITE BECOMES SUBJECT OF SOME CRITICISM

H. F. McRAE THINKS IT SHOULD BE ON SECOND AVENUE, OR AT LEAST ON A CORNER IF ON THIRD.

The site chosen by the Federal Government on Third Avenue has been a dominant subject of conversation ever since the announcement that the government had expropriated the lots for this purpose. But few gentlemen could express their views on the subject for publication. The following is the result of an effort to obtain interviews that would tend to show the general feeling on the subject:

H. F. McRae: I am of opinion that the very best of policy to place the post office there. In the first place, Third Avenue is not the street for the post office, when second Avenue will be the main thoroughfare for all time. On second Avenue will be located the Grand Trunk Pacific hotel and the permanent provincial buildings, and the most natural thing would be to have the federal buildings on that Avenue.

In the second place, the site selected is not only not a corner but lies under the brow of the hill, which will prevent the post office from being a well lighted building. This, with buildings on either side, are very strong objections from a lighting point of view.

Another thing that might be said is this: I am very strongly of the opinion that if the matter had been put to a vote in Prince Rupert the present site would never in the world have been chosen. A large number of people would have been satisfied if it had been on any corner on Third Avenue, although knowing that Second Avenue is so much more preferable.

Fred G. Dawson said he was too busy with his own growing concern to give thought to it.

Fred Stork said he thought the site chosen might be criticized, but he did not care to be interviewed on the subject.

Among others who had views on the matter but did not care to give them for publication were Mayor Pattullo, D. G. Stewart, J. Hilditch, Alderman McAlberty, A. Kirkpatrick, M. Albert and others.

AT THE WESTHOLME

Domestic Dramas and Laughable Comedies as Good as Any Big Theatre Can Show.

The program at the Westholme just now is a varied and most interesting one. There is a drama that because of the excellence of the acting is every bit as interesting as if given with the spoken word, and there are two or three comedies of the kind that need no words the comical and embarrassing situations of the characters. There is also the weekly pictorial review of passing events which have proven of so much advantage to the regular newspaper reader, enabling him to keep thoroughly posted on world movements.

PRAYERS FOR THE POPE

All the Churches of Rome Offer Up Prayers for the Pontiff's Recovery

(Special to The Daily News.) Rome, April 12.—The Pope rested easily last night but his condition is far from satisfactory. The weakness of his heart and his intermittent pulse are still causing grave anxiety. Dr. Andre Amici, who spent the night at the Pope's bedside, said this morning that his patient rested sufficiently well. His temperature is now a little above 97. In all the churches of Rome special prayers were offered this morning for the recovery of the Pope.

SPECIAL FEATURES AT THE MAJESTIC

The management of the Majestic Theatre is to be congratulated on securing an orchestra under the able leadership of Mr. J. S. Gray. The man at the drums is Mr. Sealey of Vancouver, who comes with a reputation of being "some" drummer, and with Mr. Gray Sr. as violinist, the Majestic orchestra will surely delight their patrons.

Another innovation at the Majestic commencing next Monday for a run of three weeks is a special line of features secured from Coulter's exclusive productions from their Vancouver office. Mr. Mark N. Horowitz arrived in the city on the Princess Sophia on Thursday to see that they are put on properly. Although these features have been secured at great expense, the manager announces that there will be no advance in prices.

WORKMAN SUSTAINED SERIOUS INJURIES

Fell from Wharf Upon Floating Piles—His Condition Is Serious.

Philip Gillingham, employed by Pillsbury & Shea at the new wharf that is under construction at the quarantine station, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon, falling from the wharf upon some floating piles, a distance of 20 or 25 feet. The unfortunate man sustained a fracture of the base of the skull, a fractured shoulder and other injuries less serious.

Dr. Kergin went over in a launch and attended to the injured man. He was brought to the city and placed in the hospital about 4 o'clock.

While the injuries are of a very serious nature, Mr. Gillingham passed a fairly good night and is getting along as well as can be expected. He is a young man about 28 years of age and a native of Newfoundland.

HINDUS NOT FIT FOR BRITISH CITIZENSHIP

Strong Statement by Vancouver Member in House of Commons at Ottawa.

When the Japanese treaty was under discussion in the House of Commons at Ottawa last week Mr. H. H. Stevens of Vancouver expressed confidence that the Borden letters leave the Immigration act in full force, and made some rather remarkable statements as to the Oriental menace. He knew, he asserted, that at the time the trouble with Hindus occurred in his province one hundred thousand of these were to come to Canada from India. "These Hindus," he added, "are now on the way to the colonial office in London to insist that the Dominion action be overriden, and the Hindus allowed to come in."

"Aren't they British subjects?" asked Mr. Lemieux.

"No," said Mr. Stevens. "They fought in the army," persisted the ex-postmaster general.

"I saw," answered Mr. Stevens, "some of the actual conduct of Hindu soldiers in action. However, I do not wish to make international trouble, and will say no more. But they are not fit for British citizenship, either in their own country or here."

DEATH OF MR. BLACK

How He Is Spoken of in the Community in Which He Lived Before Coming Here.

C. R. Black, proprietor of the Pacific Rooms, who died in Portland, Ore., recently, is thus referred to in one of the Portland daily newspapers:

"Mr. C. R. Black, a well known resident of Portland, died early Thursday morning, April 3, at his residence, 475 Salmon street. He had made his home here most of the time until the past four years, being engaged in contracting and building. Four years ago he became interested in Prince Rupert, B. C. His death was due to cancer of the stomach."

"Mr. Black was born in Salem, Nova Scotia, fifty-eight years ago. Coming west while a young man, he followed the undertaking business in Minnesota and Dakota. While there he married Miss Elizabeth Grace Sibley, of Stevack, Nova Scotia. He leaves a widow and four children. One son, Claud W., and a daughter, Mrs. C. L. Miner, reside here. The two oldest boys, Frank and Fred, live in Alberta, Canada.

"Mr. Black was a member of the Methodist Church, and also a Mason for thirty years or more."

BOWSER'S NOSE OUT OF JOINT WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

MINISTER OF INTERIOR SAYS NO ONE HAD RIGHT TO PAY
KITSILANO INDIANS WITHOUT FEDERAL CONSENT.

Ottawa, April 10.—Information came to Ottawa last evening that Hon. W. J. Bowser, representing the government of British Columbia, had paid off the Indians of the Kitsilano reserve. The minister of the interior had heard nothing official, but stated that the action had not been approved by the government here. Mr. Stevens, when seen in regard to the matter, expressed himself as at a loss to understand the action of Mr. Bowser, and added: "I have been working on this matter for about a year and had everything ready whereby the reserve was to have been transferred to the public works department for harbor purposes at a figure to be fixed which would have been fair to the Indians. I advised Mr. Bowser fully of my efforts and intentions and regret beyond expression that he has taken such a drastic course. The Indians are wards of the Dominion government and no one is allowed to purchase their lands without the consent of the Dominion government. The action taken in this case cannot fail to raise regrettable complications and will also seriously affect the elaborate harbor plans of which the dredging of False Creek was a commencement."

DEBATE ON THE CLOSURE BILL IS CONTINUED IN THE COMMONS

LONDON NEWSPAPER DEPLORES NAVAL DEBATE IN CANADA
AND DESCRIBES IT AS "AN IMPERIAL TRAGEDY."

Ottawa, April 12.—The house last night continued the discussion of the closure resolution but in a fairly quiet manner devoid of the disorderly scenes that marked the session on the evening of its introduction. On that occasion Sir Wilfrid Laurier concluded his protest against the passage of the closure in these words:

"Let me repeat to my right honorable friend: 'As you sow, so shall you reap; as you are fair, so shall you meet with fairness; as you are unjust, so shall you meet with injustice.' My right honorable friend two years ago took a certain attitude on the reciprocity bill. He has no right to complain if the same methods that he made use of is applied to him in the present case. My right honorable friend has not forgotten the words of Shakespeare: 'This even-handed justice commends the ingredients of our poisoned chalice to our own lips.'"

The discussion on the resolution is certain to last several days yet.

London Opinion on Debate.

London, April 12.—The Star (Liberal) tonight heads an editorial concerning the debate at Ottawa yesterday, "An Imperial Tragedy," and declares that the Canadian naval bill has done infinite harm to imperial unity.

"We are sure that a conflict between the Canadian French and Canadian British is too high a price to pay for three dreadnoughts," continues the Star. "The irony of this imperial tragedy is that the need for the three dreadnoughts is steadily diminishing as Anglo-German relations improve."

London is aflame tonight with newspaper placards stating in lurid lines that police have been called into the Canadian Parliament. Many people are reminded of a similar thing which occurred at Westminster in the home rule debate about sixteen years back when the parliamentary police were called in to preserve order.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

The Budget Presented Shows Reduction of Public Debt.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 10.—Premier Matheson, introducing his budget speech, estimates the total receipts for next year for Prince Edward Island at $501,177, and total expenditures at $500,361, leaving an estimated surplus of $1,416. The public debt will be reduced by $17,000, and teachers' salaries increased by $30,000, giving each a 5 per cent. raise. A new tax will be that imposed on the black fox breeding industry. It is to be a tax of 1 per cent. on the value of the year's increase, and is expected to yield $25,000. The income tax will bring in approximately $20,000.
