WILL RECORD CARD SCORES

Catholic Women's League to Give Fine Prizes

A record of the scores of players at the Catholic Women's League card parties will be kept after the new year, it was announced at last night's session and, at the last card party of the season, in May or June, a drawing will be held among the top scorers in bridge, whist and cribbage.

The winner will be awarded an attractive occasion chair and a second and third prize will be given to the other two contestants.

In charge of last night's party was Mrs. L. Doiron who acted as convener in the absence of Mrs. W. Lahti. Refreshments were under charge of Mrs. S. W. Dickens and Mrs. P. LeRoss, while Mrs. C. Schaffer was in charge of the raffle, assisted by Mrs. J. Bouzek and Mrs. J. MacArthur.

Twenty-two tables were in play, the winners being:

Bridge — Ladies: Mrs. H. F. Glassey (6530), Mrs. Matson (5340); men: Father J. Ryder (6940), B. Young (5110).

Whist—Ladies: Mrs. M. MacDougall (178), Mrs. F. Murray (173); men: J. Bouzek (186), M. Garbell (183).

Cribbage—Ladies: O. K. Olsen (1181), Mrs. A. Astoria (1168); men: R. J. Schaeffer (1175), J. F. Bugyinka (1160).

Raffle—Arthur Murray, sr., M. Stokes.

NEW RAILWAY CAR IS OUT

Special Designed Coach to be Ready by Christmas

MONTREAL—A new type of passenger car which has just been completed for the Canadian National Railways in the company's London, Ont., shops went into service here today. It is the first of fourteen to be constructed and of eight expected to be ready for service to handle the Christmas rush of holiday travellers. The new car was designed by officers of the company's mechanical and architectural departments.

"It marks an important step in the Canadian National Railway's post-war replacement and modernization program," said R. C. Vaughan, CMG., chairman and president of the system, during the official inspection of the car. "It is the first of more than 80 new passenger cars planned for service in 1947. Many of the cars will be entirely new in design."

ARE MARRIED AT ST. PAUL'S

Miss Mary Kane Becomes Bride of Jantoft Leland at Well-Attended Ceremony

St. Paul's Lutheran Church was the centre of interest for scores of family friends Thursday evening during the nuptial rite which joined Miss Mary Louise Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kane of Nokomis, Sask., and Jantoft Leland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Leland of Prince Rupert. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. O. Aasen.

Wearing a white floor-length wedding gown, the bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by Miss June Berg and Miss Inez McKinnon as bridesmaids. Miss Berg wore a blue floor-length gown, while that of Miss McKimmon was yellow.

Groomsman was Fred Leland, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the I.O.D.E. Hall, where 150 guests gathered at a wedding supper and enjoyed dancing. Numerous beautiful wedding gifts were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland are leaving Saturday night aboard the Camosun on a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Sasktchewan, after which they will return to take up residence here. Mr. Leland is a fisherman and Mrs. Leland was formerly employed on the clerical staff of the Canadian National Railways here.

RADIO AUCTION FIRST NIGHT WELL RECEIVED

Radio auction presented an hour of "demand" entertainment from the Civic Centre stage last night as bids for hometown talent poured in over a battery of telephones from scores of people on the first night of the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce radio show.

Given the impetus of a number of bids that were submitted last night, but did not get on the air, Radio Auction chairman Don Esselmont predicts that tonight's show will be even more diversified with more presentations.

Climax of the radio auction will come tomorrow night when the show will be on the air for an hour and a half, instead of the hour which it was allotted for last night and tonight.

Last night's presentations were broadcast with background music by Bobby Woods' orchestra and with accompaniment by Jean De Carlo at the piano. Announcing was by Walter Smith and Neil Kingston, who alternated at the microphone.

Talent presentations included a vocal solo by Miss Ruby Wickstom on a $2 bid by Bill Kurulok; a vocal novelty by Mickey Fudger on a $7 bid; a recitation by Ross Kingston on a $3 bid; and a vocal solo by Stuart Furk on a $5 bid.

One of the highlights of Saturday night's program will be choral presentations by the Borden Street School choir, for which $16 in bids are already in, and which are expected to mount considerably higher.

A considerable number of articles or services, donated by local business places were received last night, and have been added to the considerable list of articles to be auctioned tonight and Saturday.

Accompanist for tonight's program will be Mrs. J. S. Black.

Proceeds from the radio auction will be divided equally between the Civic Centre, Pioneers' Home and the Salvation Army.

Rt. Rev. Anthony Jordan, vicar-apostolic of Prince Rupert vicariate of the Roman Catholic Church, who has been on a trip to Ottawa on ecclesiastical duties, is returning to the city on the Coquitlam Sunday night via Vancouver.

After this date I will not be responsible for debts contracted in my name by anyone other than myself.
