I.O.D.E. HEARS MRS. SPROTT

Official Visitor Was Active During Stay Here Last Week

Mrs. R. J. Sprott, official visitor to the local Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, has left for her home in Vancouver after highlighting several social events in Prince Rupert as a guest speaker and generally enjoying the well known local hospitality.

Accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. D. C. Stuart, 1649 Second Avenue, Mrs. Sprott was taken on a sight-seeing tour by Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby as far as Miller Bay Hospital, where they were shown through that institution by the matron, Miss McDiarmid, and Dr. Galbraith.

After a promenade through the Civic Centre with Don Forward disclosing the accommodations and benefits of that building, Mrs. Sprott was certain that Prince Rupert indeed has an advantage over Vancouver.

Large Tea On Thursday

One of the larger affairs complimenting Mrs. Sprott was a tea on Thursday afternoon in the I.O.D.E. Hall, under the auspices of the local chapters.

Members, friends and special guests numbered between one and two hundred.

Mrs. Gilbert Brown made the tea hour more charming with songs.

An address by Mrs. Sprott, delightful, tactful and talented, sent the ladies homeward all resolved to be better neighbors and citizens.

"Men never made a success of anything without the help of their womenfolk," she asserted, "and we'll never have peace and security until women are granted equal political rights the world over and allowed to take their rightful place in the governments of the world.

"To prepare themselves for this task," she stated, "women should begin by working peacefully together in their small organizations. Stop making petty criticisms of your neighbor once you have probably railroaded her into taking an office," she admonished. "Do your own part well, and any organization will do more for you than you will ever do for it!"
