MORE SUGAR FOR BRITONS

LONDON, (AP)—Minister of Food John Strachey said that the 25 per cent cut in the British sugar ration, which had been effective since late May, would be restored on August 18.

FIRST DOGFIGHT

The first air combat occurred in the First Great War when a British pilot flew over a German plane and shot at it with a revolver.

MARK OF SERVITUDE

The Chinese queue originally was a mark of subjugation imposed by the conquering Manchus in 1644.

The production of Canadian daily newspapers accelerated greatly with the introduction of the iron press in 1832 and the adapatation of steam power in 1850 until by 1891 there were 97 daily newspapers.

UNION CHIEF IS REAL FISHERMAN

BOSTON, (AP)—Captain Patrick McHugh, president of the Atlantic Fishermen's Union and a native of the Newfoundland fishing village of Fox Harbor, hates "slick" lawyers, also, he doesn't give a hoot for convention. Recently he appeared before a United States Congressional committee wearing the typical fisherman's brown shirt and heavy brogues.

He has had a lot to do with congressional committees in recent months. As head of the union, Captain McHugh led his men of the Boston trawler fleet through to a new contract with operators. They had waged a strike which lasted 164 days.

The new contract provided for a 60-40 split of the catch for fishermen, a three-dollar-a-day allowance while in hospital and new pay rates for shore work.

McHugh is fearless and outspoken. No more pretentious than when he was just another boy in Fox Harbor, he is definitely unhappy at lavish banquets and other functions which, as union chief, he must attend.

He is still a fisherman at heart. Most fishermen on the North Atlantic know that, and visitors at the Boston pier usually find him chatting with a group of his own men.

EVENTIDE HOME IS GETTING $200

In order to speed and expedite the construction of the new Eventide Home, the executive of the United Association of Plumbers and Steamfitters has decided to hand over to the mayor at this time a sum of $200 which had been originally set aside to buy individual comforts for the inmates of the institution.

Difficulties arising through air raid damage were exemplified by one British daily newspaper that was forced to carry on its work in nine different premises scattered over four different towns in order to produce the newspaper regularly.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Which is really preferable, a church wedding or a home wedding?

A. The church wedding is preferable when many invitations are issued, but if only the immediate families and most intimate friends are invited, the bride's home is usually preferred.

Q. Is it good form for one to say to a person, "I have forgotten your name"?

A. No; it is very unflattering to say such a thing.

Q. What is a corsage bouquet?

A. A bouquet of flowers fastened on the waist or bodice of a woman's gown.
