WOMEN TO HAVE BIG PART IN "NEW WORLD"

The "brave, new world" which humanity must forge will not be the product of the male element alone but will develop through the co-operative effort of far-sighted men and women who recognize and complement the dignity and value of each other's work.

This concept of co-operation between the sexes stressed to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Thursday afternoon by Mrs. R. J. Sprott, provincial organizer for the I.O.D.E., who spoke on the topic "A woman Looks at Rotary" at the club's weekly luncheon.

Admitting a profound respect for the Rotary movement, of which her late husband was a charter member in Vancouver, Mrs. Sprott introduced the names of two women's organizations whose aims of fellowship and service were, she said, equally high.

These were the Soroptimist Club, of which she was former national president, and the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire.

The former, she explained, is a woman's counterpart of Rotary with the same aims and the same membership classifications. It also has the same universal nature, being established in many countries throughout the world.

"The Soroptimist Clubs in Europe had the honor, with Rotary, of being among the first groups suppressed by Hitler when he came to power," she said. "It is encouraging and interesting to watch those groups come to life again."

The great efficiency with which the I.O.D.E. in Canada collected and shipped garments overseas during the war was cited as an outstanding example of the capacity for achievement of organized women.

"Thousands of bundles of clothing were sent overseas during the war by the I.O.D.E.," she said. "These were prepared, collected and shipped by women who did not even have an expense account to work on."

The I.O.D.E. second War Memorial Fund, which provides scholarships for outstanding children of men killed or maimed in World War II, is another example of the far-sighted outlook of Canada's women.

"Our objective is to give outstanding young people the chance to become educated for leadership in Canada through our revolving fund which is a living memorial to those who were killed or maimed in the war," she asserted. "We recognize that Canada has and will have a great need for leaders."

Mrs. Sprott paid high tribute to the work done by he four Prince Rupert chapters of the I.O.D.E., and particularly to Mrs. D. C. Stuart, Municipal Chapter regent, who also was present as a guest.

Thanks of the club were expressed to Mrs. Sprott by President Dr. L. W. Kergin. Guests were Raphael and Michael Kellert of Vancouver, E. J. Chapman and Arnold Flaten of Prince Rupert, and Earl Howie of Vancouver. Visiting Rotarians were Sydney Barker, William Drake and Len Harvey of Vancouver and Horace Green of Victoria.

T. A. McEwen returned on last night's train from a two week's business trip through the interior towns as far as Prince George.

W. E. Drake, general manager of Edward Lipsett Ltd., sailed by the Prince Rupert last night on his return to Vancouver after a visit here on company business.

Sidney Barton, who has been here for some time in connection with the setting up of a Singer Sewing Machine Co. agency, sailed last night by the Prince Rupert on his return to Vancouver.

Jeep Driven By Country Doctor

FALMOUTH, Me., (AP) — The speedy red machine responding to emergency calls here isn't a fire engine—it's the new jeep of Dr. Arthur B. Woodman, who believes the sturdy little cars will become a winter boon to the rural physician.

The jeep has carried the suburban Portland physician to many places inaccessible by the prosaic automobile. He drives it 300 to 400 miles weekly on calls.

His jeep, he says, is going to be especially useful in beating country snowdfirts.

RITE UNITES TWO FAMILIES ON NAAS RIVER

Members of two prominent Naas River families were united at a ceremony in St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Greenville, on November 6, when Miss Addie Russ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Russ of Greenville, became the bride of Raphael Thomas McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. McKay. The rite was solmenized by Rev. G. S. Johnston of Greenville.

Wearing a gown of brocaded silk, the bride was attended by seven bridesmaids similarly attired. Attending the groomsman were seven young men. Groomsman was Fred McKay.

A procession which was headed by the parents of both the bride and groom accompanied the wedding party to the community hall following the ceremony. There a banquet for more than 300 guests was served. Guests of Honor were two overseas veterans, Milton Clarke of Greenville and Wallace Price of Massett. There were a number of visitors from Aiyansh and Kincolith at the function.

Entertainment at the reception was provided by the Greenville Concert Band, whose most popular number was "Colonel Bogey on Parade." Following the reception, a dance was held in the hall, with music by the Improvement Association orchestra.
