ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

The Service Wives' Club met in the ladies' lounge at the "Y" on Thursday afternoon with nine ladies and nine children present. Work was done on curtains for one of the forts. The raffle was donated by Mrs. Sargent and was won by Mrs. Kuhn. Tea was served by Mrs. Pavey and Mrs. Kuhn.

Flash! Double Flash! Latest play by play report by Arthur Peacock, Number One Correspondent, on a mighty ball game played Tuesday night at Barrett Point. Here is what Arthur says:

"All you softball fans and fannies who didn't have the pleasure of seeing the scheduled game between Port Edward Yanks and Barrett Point at the Muskeg Bowl, missed the battle of the century. Boy! Watta' hot game—17 innings at 90 in the shade with a final score for the Canucks of 3-2.

"At the end of the third innings, the score was 2-0 for the Yanks. Then in the sixth Peterson and Buffie were walked. Poppenheim tied the score by hitting a two-bagger to the outfield, driving in Peterson from third and Buffie from second.

"From then on it was neck and neck. (Hey, Arthur this is a ball game not a horse race), Buffie pitching like a demon (pitchforking, perhaps?) until the fifteenth, with one Yank on second, another on third, and one out, he struck out the other two. In the sixteenth, with one Yank on third and none out, Ted Langhorn socked the old pill home and Buffie got the other two. At the end of the seventeenth with two men on bases, Dick hit a two-bagger, bringing in Major Seldon from third with the winning run.

"This was the first American defeat of the season but it sure was no disgrace as they were a swell bunch of sports and played a grand game. So-o-o now the Coast Battery is Terrace bound this week-end (they hope)—can you Barrett? (Pun copywright by Peacock).

Halifax Volunteer Group Has Put on Nearly 2,000 Free Shows

HALIFAX, June 16 (CP)—When the servicemen and merchant mariners hit Halifax their best entertainment friend is Uncle Mel, the genial fellow who is ready to stage a variety show at the drop of a hat. Uncle Mel calls his organization the Concert Parties Guild and it is composed of amateurs and professionals who devote their spare time to this work.

Girls and music please at any time but present that combination to men wearied with weeks at sea or months in the outforts and the result is terrific. But that type of show isn't the entire diet. The men display as much enthusiasm for plays and classical music, whether in outfort or hostel, hospital or transport ship.

Uncle Mel—or Hugh Mills as he is known in business life—is not a man who turns his attention during the odd free evening to making life happier for the stranger. He's at it every day and night of the year planning, staging and presenting shows. This is possible because his wife—Aunt Mel—runs his business, a woman's fashion shop, and also is his chief lieutenant in his entertainment work.

Concert, Parties Guild troupes have been applauded by more than 1,000,000 men through nearly 2,000 performances — Uncle Mel formed his organization four months after the war started.

Theatrical enterprise on that scale needs money and plenty of it. It comes from interested supporters who donate money for costumes, musical instruments, a public address system, automobiles, and all the other things required to keep a portable show running smoothly. But none of this money reaches Uncle Mel or his performers—they are all 100 percent volunteers.

Another Guild service is finding and supplying recreational equipment to ships and outposts. Curtains, costumes, furniture, radios, spotlights, sewing machines, pianos, phonographs, records, piano rolls, jig-saw puzzles and lighting equipment, all valued at more than $11,000, has been given away so far.

Raymond Massey, the stage and screen star who recently resigned his commission in the Canadian Army because of sickness, said the Guild is "the best in Canada. The work being done is simply marvellous."
