THE NEED IS GREATER

For total victory he fights a total war. For nothing less will he lay down his arms. For your sake he's willing to gamble on coming through alive. Whether he does or not is decidedly your affair . . .

The imminence of victory has climaxed the responsibilities of the home front. Canada's borrowing needs today are greater, not less. To see the uniformed services get all they need to win with minimum losses, is still our biggest job.

NOW is the hour to buy Victory Bonds—one more than before!

WHIMSICAL, ROMANTIC

Is "Once Upon a Time,", Picture Starring Cary Grant and Janet Blair

"Once Upon a Time," something different in the way of screen comedies, comes to the Capitol Theatre here next Monday and Tuesday. Cary Grant is the star and Janet Blair heads the featured cast which also includes William Demarest, James Gleason, Ted Donaldson, Mickey McGuire and Howard Freeman.

Cary Grant plays the part of a Broadway producer who has just had three big flops and is about to lose his theatre. Then he discovers a young lad, Ted Donaldson, with a caterpillar that can dance to the tune of "Yes, Sir, That's My Baby." The youngster has a lovely sister, Janet Blair, so romance joins up with whimsy in what is said to be most delightful entertainment.

It is another of those comedies which bring acceptable surcease from the cares of the day.

MARRIED AT ST. PETER'S

Miss Myrtle Cowie Becomes Bride of "Sandy" Storrie

The wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove on Thursday afternoon, Canon Rushbrook officiating, of Myrtle Cowie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Cowie, 544 7th. ave. E., and Trooper A. B. "Sandy" Storrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Storrie, 1452 Piggott Ave.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was a lovely picture in a white satin floor length gown. Her fingertip length white veil and halo were crowned with white flowers and she carried a bouquet of Talisman roses, gardenias and pink and white carnations.

Corbin King attended the groom and Miss Sheila Cowie, sister of the bride, was a charming bridesmaid in a pale blue floor length taffeta gown. She carried a bouquet of pale mauve chrysanthemums and her pale blue chapel veil was held with sweetheart roses.

Friends of the bride and groom were received by Mrs. G. S. Cowie and Mrs. A. B. Storrie at a reception held at the home of the groom's parents where luncheon was served. The serviteurs were Mrs. G. A. Cowie, Mrs. C. King, Mrs. Jennie Murray, Miss Jean Cowie and Miss Bea Rudderham with the assistance of Mrs. Sam Haudenschild.

School Prncipal Introduces "Shag"

Last night at the Conrad Street School the fourth meeting of the popular Modern Dancing Club was held. As there was no particular business to discuss, no formal meeting was conducted so the dancing got off to a good start about 7:30.

A few waltzes and foxtrots preceded the introduction by Edward Wahl and Miss MacDonald of the "shag." To most participants, this new step proved rather confusing at the outset but in a short time everyone was "shagging" merrily. Following this were some more varied dances, then an eager line was formed up to the coke stand.

About 10:30, after the boys and girls had paired up for the home waltz, the happy session ended, with only the few volunteer "janitors" remaining.
