Hero of Present Soviet Offensive Is Young Woman

MOSCOW, Aug. 22—One of the heroes of the Red Army's present offensive is a woman, Lt.-Col. Evdokia Bershanskaya. She is the commander of an air regiment which in recent weeks made 10,539 sorties and blew up some 800 German military objectives, 83 oil dumps, nine military trains, three railway stations and other objectives.

This gallant Russian woman is only 31 years old. She wears four decorations, one of which was awarded her before the war. Born of a Cossack family in the Caucasus, she lost her parents in childhood and at the age of nine was placed in a children's home.

After graduating from secondary school she prepared to become a teacher. Instead she became interested in aviation and obtained permission to enter the flying school of the Civil Air Fleet. After several years she became a pilot instructor and was later appointed flight commander. It was at this time she met and married Pilot Peter Bershanskaya.

When war broke out in 1941, Bershanskaya was an air navigator with the rank of major. Leaving their four-year-old son in the care of an uncle, the parents went to the front, the husband being sent to the North and his wife to the south where she and her regiment have hammered so successfully at the Germans.

SOFTBALL LEAGUES—

Port Edward, Allies, Soo Suds, Barrett All Chalk Up Victories

By CHARLES CARNEY

Their ability to take a dangerous rally by the opposition in their stride paved the way for the Port Edward team's 7-4 victory over Coast Regiment in the first game of the Area Softball League semi-finals last night at Port Edward.

Going into the last of the third inning, the winners held a 5-0 lead. Norwood, their pitcher, developed wildness, however, and was yanked in the fourth with the bases filled and the score 5-4. His successor, Cuntz, halted the Coaster's uprising and held them under control from then on.

Score by innings:

Port Edward	302	000	2	7
Coast Regt.	003	100	0	4

Batteries: Norwood, Cuntz and Wagner; Hertzman and Hryniw.

Continuing their impressive showing in the Women's League play-offs, Allies defeated Air Force W.D.'s 8-5 at Elliott Field. This was the first of a best-of-five games final series.

They meet again Wednesday at 7:30 at Seal Cove.

Air Force pitcher, Vera Barilko, hurled outstanding ball, striking out 10 batteries. The winning pitchers, Joanne Lowe and Margaret Morgan, also were in top form. No hurler allowed more than single base hits.

Allies opened the scoring with three runs in the first inning but by the second inning Air Force tied up the game. Allies pushed in another three runs in the fifth against two more for the Air Force in the same inning. Allies chalked up another two runs in the seventh for a final score of 8-5.

Scores by innings:

Allies	300	103	1	8
W.D.'s	210	020	0	5

Batteries: Lowe and Morgan, and Hawkins; Barilko and Murray.

At Seal Cove, Soo Suds lost to Ask-Acks 4-2, and were eliminated from the Area League's quarter-finals.

In another quarter-final tilt, Barrett whipped Air Force 8-1. They will meet again Wednesday at 6:15 p.m. at Seal Cove.

The 9th Coast and Port Edward are scheduled to play the second of a two-of-three game semi-finals tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. at Elliott Field.

Y.M.C.A. War Services are responsible for the organization and supervision of the league, and the supplying of advance data and information on games played.

Youth Problem Forms Unusual Story for Film

The growing problem of juvenile delinquency in many American cities is presented in startling fashion in the "Where Are Your Children" which will be shown here only at the Capitol.

Jackie Cooper is in the starring role, while the supporting cast includes screen players as Gertrude Michael, Patricia Morison, Addison Richards and Betty Blythe.

As the story opens, Betty Blythe, entirely to her own living in a lunch working with her brother, living with her brother's wife, who has to California to work in the latter's wife, who has yards. Jackie, son of the girl to a night club and begins a series of events to bring her under the of Miss Morison, probation officer. After the away to join the navy, innocently becomes involved murder case, and from point the story is an succession of dramatic events. Later sequences toward the solution of tion which is becoming ingly serious, and an ominous threat to generations.
