"HEY ROOKIE" GAY MUSICALE

Some of the Foremost Acts Are Seen in First of Week Picture

Some of the foremost comedy and musical acts are presented in the musical comedy "Hey, Rookie!" which is next Monday and Tuesday's feature picture at the Capitol Theatre.

Joe Besser, crazy comic of the Jack Benny and Fred Allen radio shows, plays the title role of the dumb rookie. Ann Miller does some sensational dancing. Larry Parks has the male romantic lead. Other specialists include "Hi Lo Jack and the Dame," Bob Evans, ventriloquist, Hal McIntyre and his orchestra, the Vagabonds, Condos brothers, tap artists, Judy Clark, the Solid Senders and Jack Gilford, stage comic

The music includes the song hits "It's Great to be in Uniform," "There Goes Taps," "It's a Swelluva Life in the Army," "Take a Chance," "When the Yard Birds Come to Town," "Hey Rookie!" and others.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS DANCING PARTY

Members of Bethel and Young Friends Enjoyed Affair Last Night

Job's Daughters and their young friends enjoyed a delightful dancing party in the Masonic Temple banquet hall last night. The affair was in full swing from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Alex Mitchell was in his usual good form as master of ceremonies and a program of snappy dance music was furnished by Jean de Carlo's Orchestra.

The proceedings opened with the Grand March which was led by Honored Queen Mona McRae, Past Honored Queen Margaret Morin, Mrs. Alex Mitchell, guardian, and George Dawes, associate guardian.

The hall was attractively decorated with red, white and blue streamers and Christmas lighting effects.

Refreshments were served cafeteria style.

With Mrs. Mitchell giving general supervision, the committee responsible for the success of the affair consisted of Ruth Walton, convener, Lorna Donaldson, Peggy Large, Glenys Lashmar and Beryl Anderson.

Pat Love, Betty Allen and Mr. Dawes were in charge at the door.

Big American Schooners Heading Straight For Seattle—U.S. Closes Black Cod Fishing.

Practically all the big American halibut schooners are now heading into Seattle without calling here or at Alaska points on their final trips of the present fishing season which closes November 30. There are few Canadian boats still out and not many are due in Prince Rupert. It looks about the end of the landing season as far as this port is concerned.

According to word received here this week a closed season on black cod has been imposed by the United States Bureau of Fisheries owing to a scarcity of this variety of fish.

Women of Moose Home Committee

Members of the home making committee of the Women of the Moose, Prince Rupert Chapter No. 211, met at the home of Mrs. Murray on Wednesday. Plans for the forthcoming bazaar to be held on December 6 were made.

Many articles were turned in for the sewing stall, adding to the many beautiful articles already completed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, thus concluding a very pleasantly combined business and social evening.

"MUMS" FOR NOVEMBER

The birth flower for the month of November is the Chrysanthemum.
